
COLORADO FIRST TO START FOOD DRIVE

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

(Denver, Colo., April 27.—Colorado, the first state to act when the important work of the bread basket's part in the war became known, has virtually completed organization of the administrative machinery for the biggest "food drive" in the history of the country.

Immediately following the declaration of war, Gov. J. C. Gunter anticipated the national movement by organizing a war and means committee, headed by J. K. Mullen, president of the Colorado Milling and Elevator company, and Ex-Gov. Ammons, one of the state's largest farmers. The committee already has completed organization of a sub-committee in every county of the state. Working on the assumption that money is the equivalent of food, it is the greatest need of farmers to meet the crisis, the committee has assured farmers capital with which to finance their food-raising operations.

The home gardening movement was given tremendous momentum by the outbreak of war. The Civic and Commercial association of Denver is urging a movement whereby employees will agree to pay full wages to employees but allow them one working day off each week, provided they work their garden on that day. Under the auspices of the Denver Mothers' congress, 50,000 packages of seeds are being distributed without cost to school children.

Mrs. Cecilia Ward Shea, a prominent civic worker, has inaugurated a project, advocating that the state itself turn farmer, and lease or rent approximately 15,000,000 acres of tillable land in the state which has never been cultivated, subletting this to families who would come into the state, she believes, if they were assured of ground to farm, at a low rental.

Milton News

Milton, April 27.—Recent visitors in town were Frank Rice and wife of San Diego, Cal.; Roy W. Whimney of Ft. Atkinson; Henry Shummel and family of Lima; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Burge of Janesville; Dr. G. W. Post Jr. of Chicago; Mrs. Carr Kummel and son of Johnson; Mrs. H. W. Root of Madison; Mrs. E. E. Bullis of Madison; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. McNitt of Ft. Atkinson; Mrs. Janette Cleland of Whitewater; Mr. and Mrs. Marjorie Smith of Chicago; Miss Marjorie Smith, Mrs. Chadwick of Ft. Atkinson; Rev. A. L. McClelland of Rosendale.

Mrs. L. D. Harvey, president of the State Federation of the W. L. G. club at their meeting yesterday afternoon. Ice cream and cake were served.

Mrs. P. K. Miller is visiting her sister at Woodcreek.

G. M. Ellis was in Chicago on business this week.

Mrs. Martha Edmons has gone to Blenheim, N. Y.

Milton Junction

Milton Junction, April 27.—The W. L. G. met Thursday afternoon. The April committee gave an excellent program and served light refreshments. Twenty four of the members were present.

William Gasper is home from Oklahoma.

W. O. Douglas of Portville transacted business here Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Osh Stone were Janesville visitors yesterday.

Kenneth Rose of Edgerton is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. M. A. Rose.

Miss Clara departed for Watonsville yesterday, where she will spend a few weeks.

Sidney Mabson was in Port Atkinson on business yesterday.

Mrs. Joe Marshall is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Antisdel, at Janesville.

FOOTVILLE

Footville, April 26.—Mr. Clark and F. J. Trevorrah were among those who witnessed the baseball game at Madison.

O. A. Cochrane, who has been employed all winter by the cow testing association, is at home for the summer.

Word comes from Port Atkinson that John Stevenson and sister, Miss Franc, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stevens will soon leave that state for Wisconsin.

Friends of William Harper were surprised to hear of his death on Wednesday after a brief illness of pneumonia.

Mrs. Williams returned on Tuesday to her home in check, after a pleasant visit with friends here.

William Timm is making many much-needed repairs on the buildings on his farm recently purchased of S. J. Strong.

Prof. Barthol, who gave such an interesting lecture at the Christian church on Sunday evening, spent some time the first of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Day, he and Mr. Day having been schoolmates at college in their younger days.

Mrs. Chipman is absent on a visit with friends out of town.

Charles Whitmore of Janesville, was a recent caller in town.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fatzinger of Janesville, were recent callers in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Larrimore were entertained at dinner on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martz.

Miss Bly now occupies rooms at the home of Mrs. H. A. Edgerton.

Dr. Lacey made a professional call at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Witham.

Charles Whitmore was in town Thursday afternoon in attendance at the bank meeting.

Friend of J. W. Quimby are glad to see him out again, after having been confined indoors all winter.

The street scavenger is doing a good work in cleaning up the streets.

Charles Whitmore was a caller in town on Thursday.

WHATCHAMA COLUMN

Shirt Studs.

The shirt stud is the collar button's right hand.

And like the collar button, it is irresponsible and not to be depended on.

It is as the tribes of Israel—forever lost.

It is said that birds of a feather flock together. We have, perhaps, fourteen dozen shirt studs scattered around in our drawers and another at our house, but for some strange reason no two of them seem to be alike.

It has been our expert once that you can't keep a set of them together from one white shirt to the next.

If you have a set you particularly desire to keep, put on a ball and chain and lock 'em in a cell.

Many special bargains each day in the want columns. Read them.

DEHAVAN

Dehavan, April 26.—Mrs. C. Quale was a Milwaukee visitor the first of the week.

Born, Monday, April 23, at the Rice sanatorium, to Mr. and Mrs. John Lundell, a daughter, Mr. Lundell is the caretaker at the Dehavan summer home on Dehavan Lake.

An especial amount of work is being done in Spring Grove cemetery at this season. The dry weather of the last autumn interfered greatly in getting the grounds in shape. Mr. Koernig, sexton, is being assisted by the Flint brothers this week.

Mrs. Henry Francis, who went to Beloit to live with her son following the death of her husband last fall, has been reported as recovering from a severe illness of late.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. William Bray of Richmond, on Monday, April 24, a son. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. William Meadow of Gibbetts of Sharon, agent at this day, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Brodhead News

Brodhead, Wis., April 26.—Mrs. B. Sprague is critically ill.

Mrs. C. W. Fuller and little daughter have been guests of Whitewater friends for a week.

Mrs. W. W. Roderick is having a new garage built.

Rev. W. P. Scott is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. John Macomber and little daughter have been spending a few days in Chicago, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Fields.

Walter Ramey was a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor.

Mrs. Oscar Hyatt and little daughter, Pauline, were visitors in Janesville Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Karney returned Wednesday, having spent some days here.

Mrs. C. M. Fleck of Janesville spent the day, Wednesday, with Miss Kate Schreiner.

Mrs. William Wilkinson went to Mineral Point Wednesday to visit relatives.

W. W. Terry went to Chicago Wednesday.

John Menor, a passenger to Janesville Wednesday afternoon.

Lee Menor returned to Madison Wednesday afternoon after spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Menor

The Janesville Gazette

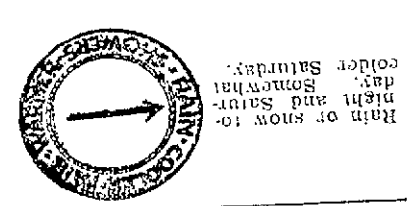

New Bldg., 200-201 E. Milwaukee St.

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT JANESVILLE, WIS., AS SECOND CLASS MAIL, MATTER.

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATURDAY EVENING.

Members of Associated Press.
Member of Audit Bureau of Circulations.
Member of Wisconsin Daily League.

WEATHER FORECAST.

AT BOTH ENDS.

There is no use in saving, planting gardens, increasing dairy and beef herds, putting in potatoes and wheat unless there is saving at both ends of the purse. The average person can be penny wise and pound foolish. Can plant more acreage, and create herds, discuss means and methods of saving by not eating this or that costly food but the next thing is to practice it. If as a nation we are to husband our resources it is time we began. It is time that the wastes of potatoes in farmers' root cellars be called out and placed on the market by the state board of defense and sold at a reasonable price. It is all right to preach a substitute for potatoes, but that rice will take the place of wheat and so forth but why not get down to the core of the whole business and insist that wheat be ground to what is known as eighty or eighty-five the patent grades obliterated and the people given the real value of the whole wheat as our fathers enjoyed it before their. One farmer in the immediate neighborhood of Janesville admitted having had several bushels of potatoes stored away and said a neighbor had more. A business man of an adjacent village was here recently taking orders for potatoes to be delivered in car loads at three dollars and better a bushel. He stated he could get plenty of them for sale and he certainly bought them for less or he would have made his price higher. Perhaps a boycott on the potato for a few weeks would bring a drop in the price or at least reduce the price of seed potatoes and increase the supply. Why not try it? It would not be any real hardship to have potatoes a minus quantity on the daily menu for a day or two or a week or more. There are substitutes that could take their place. The trouble is that too many families are now undergoing this test, not to reduce the price of potatoes but because they can not afford to pay the price demanded for them. However, that can be fixed by law so why not start on the "trial of life" first in the information and see what happens.

SELECTIVE DRAFT.

It would appear as though selective draft was to be an accomplished fact before the week ends. It is certain that the measure will be signed by President Wilson as soon as possible and it is to be hoped that the question will be settled once and for all so that we can at last make a start at organizing the army of a half million men talked of. Meanwhile as an illustration of the volunteer system and the stand of the Wisconsin congressmen on the subject, note that Wisconsin is seventh on the list from the bottom in enlistment in all branches of the service. It is safe to say not a national guard company is left to war strength and yet we boast of the patriotism of the young men. Apparently the only way to get them will be by draft and that is seemingly assured now.

PROHIBITIONS DEMAND.

For of liquor from all parts of the country action looking congress and the administration with dispatches urging absolute prohibition during the term of the war. They base their arguments upon the sound ground of saving the grain now used in manufacture of liquors for food consumption. It is a plea of the high moral ground and doubtless will have its moral effect upon future legislation even if not granted by congress at this session. It makes people think more of the waste and cost of liquor and it is accomplished what has been done already in this cause. National prohibition is bound to come sooner or later, why not now when the time is ripe?

MAKE NO MISTAKE.

The state senate of Wisconsin can not afford to make any mistake on that state wide prohibition referendum passed by the house by failing to give the people of the state an opportunity to vote on the question at the April election next year. They should pass the measure as a stand and let the people express their opinion on the question. It is one of state wide and national importance and just now national so. In this connection the assembly in passing the suffrage measure already passed by the state senate has acted wisely. Both houses of more than state importance and are closely allied as votes in various states where suffrage is granted demonstrate. Let the people vote on both these questions and decide what they want for themselves.

Misdirection is this afternoon and evening demonstrating their loyalty. They have a patriotic parade and dresses and music and songs and enthusiasm that demonstrates they are alive to the necessities of the crisis our country is passing through. More than that they are enlisting a whole nation to serve when called upon as an adjunct in the Wisconsin National Guard as a part of Company M of this city.

Some one has estimated that if all the wheat planted in Rock county yields a fair crop it will mean that this county alone has produced enough to supply every family within the limits with flour for twelve months. It may be far fetched but of course this was based upon the eighty to eighty-five percent flour, not the patent variety.

Of course we must believe the war dispatches that come from across the water but it does seem strange that the accounts should tell of the terrible loss to the Central and give us a line on the estimating the losses of the Allies who must have suffered as well.

Those park ideas of Prof. Smith are not so bad after all when you stop and consider them. The purchase of the land suggested now would not be considerable and later they could be developed and in a few years think what an asset it would be for the city.

The United States has welcomed the foreign representatives and they have decided already on some of the preliminary plans for the war. Meanwhile President Wilson has been wise enough to select Elihu Root to go to Russia to see what can be done for the new republic over there and as a side issue hold them firmly for the ultimate victory of the world against Prussianism.

Roosevelt and Joffre are to hold a conference. It is safe to say that Roosevelt will have the most to say and when he gets through he will have impressed our French visitor there is at least one American with true red blood in his veins at any rate.

Shooting down Germans, approaching in mass formation is something new to the artillery of the Allies. Just what it will result in is hard to say but certainly some of the advancing hosts of the allies have been slaughtered as well although we do not hear of it.

Returned exiles to Russia appear to feel they are in duty bound to stir up another revolt or so just to show how glad they are to be home. If the nihilists were placed in the munition factories manufacturing ammunition perhaps Russia would be better equipped shortly than it is now.

One enthusiastic gardener who owns a home in the city and a cottage up the river has planted his home garden and is spending his spare time digging up the soil around his cottage to put in another.

While we are waiting for hostilities to begin why not give three cheers and a tiger for the gunners on that American ship that sank the submarine on the first shot.

Who trot on the tail of Champ Clark's "Hound Dawg" anyway? Whoever it was should be chastised by three good hard slaps on the wrist.

ON THE SPUR of the MOMENT

ROY K. MOULTON

THE WORST YET

Though we view with frowning features every young and callow creature who will step along the avenue in spats.

While so heated is our feeling that we often hit the ceiling.

When we meet whoever wear brown derby hats.

Still you might as well be knowing we could pardon the foregoing.

We'd forgive 'em though they shock our simple taste.

But in greatest rage were swearing at the youths who now are wearing.

These new trench-coats, tightly belted round the waist!

He who cultivates a passion for the very latest fashion.

Very often is offensive to the eye.

When we see a lad affecting foppish fancies we're suspecting.

That he'll languish in the bug-house bye and bye.

Just the same and none the less he thinks he's really very dapper.

And we're so that we spoke of him in haste.

Still we're glad to wish a curse on that absurd and youthful person.

With the trench-coat tightly belted round the waist!

Though one shivers as he passes every pair of horn-rimmed glasses.

Though we writhe to see a wrist-watch on a male.

Though we reckon as demented him whose handkerchief is so scented.

Or who loves a lovely polish on his nail.

Very queer are these. However, we would scruple to assever.

That they're either lost to reason or disgraced.

But how grieved and how unhappy are the parents of the child.

With the trench-coat tightly belted round the waist!

Be a Reformer.

One good way to spend your time is in reforming other people. If you can spend a few hours after work each day in reforming you will soon be able to find fault with anything.

At a Reformers' meeting the ability to see the objections to everything. Tell other people what they ought to do. Go up to someone and ask him his opinion in regard to something and then tell him he's wrong. Dead wrong. Prove it to him. Say, if you don't agree with me you're narrow-minded and ignorant. Sooner or later you will find it necessary to tell him how important he is. If he pokes you on the nose, perhaps you will find an interest in reforming of your nose.

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Indeed

Mrs. Yeller's cook book in nine volumes and went over her lessons with her each night.

At the end of three months Inella could make Norway noodles, Japanese jumpuns and Swlas zweibach better than Mrs. Hoostetter herself.

At the end of three months and four days she opened a cooking school of these on and Mrs. Hoostetter put another ad in the papers.

COUNTY MEDICS TO ORGANIZE FOR SERVICE

Janesville physicians are enthused over a plan to form an auxiliary committee on medical preparedness to be known as the Auxiliary Medical Defense Committee of Rock county.

At the meeting of the Rock County Medical society Tuesday night, the proposition was discussed and more definite action will be taken within a week when the committee meets. The committee appointed for Rock county are: Dr. T. W. Nuzum, Janesville chairman; Dr. E. T. Brown, Beloit, secretary; Dr. F. W. Van Kirk and W. A. Munn, of Janesville; and Drs. C. E. Smith, M. P. Andrews, and F. T. Nye, of Beloit.

The plans and purposes of the organization are to secure physicians in the capacity of field aids for the state. It is a non-partisan and purely patriotic move on the part of the committee of American physicians to offer their services to the nation.

The plan was proposed early in April, 1916, by five of the leading medical associations in the nation. Just a year ago today, the executive committee presented a memorial to the president who expressed his gratification for the patriotic move and said that steps would be taken at once to perfect comprehensive plans by which the federal government might avail itself of the services of the medical profession. Later, the cabinet formulated plans for the coordination of the organization. Provisions for the fruition of these plans were made by appropriate acts of congress.

May Form Double Unit. It has been suggested that a double unit be formed in the first congressional district, so that doctors, now working together, might each join a separate contingent, and one remain at home while the other unit would be serving on the field. The "Maryland Plan," so-called, because the Maryland association proposed it, would reimburse any doctor serving on the field for a portion of his business disbursements to those remaining at home. This would provide for the support of his family.

In recognition of the important role medicine must play in any comprehensive plans for preparedness, a medical man, Dr. Franklin H. Martin, has been appointed a member of the Council of National Defense.

It is the plan to co-operate every medical unit in the country with the work of the national council and the national committee of the American Red Cross.

Must Pass Rigid Tests. The base hospital unit in Milwaukee is practically complete and in a few weeks will be fully equipped. The state committee is urging every county

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

Must Pass Rigid Tests.

ty in the state to establish a medical preparedness unit.

Doctors applying for appointment must pass the same rigid medical examination as private. Those successful are promoted to the rank of first lieutenant.

Moving Pictures in Alaska. Every coast town in Alaska, from Juneau to Nome, and practically every town with a population of 200 or more has a moving picture theater. All get the best films and produce the biggest features. The picture theater at Candide, 200 miles north of Nome, is located nearer the pole than any other picture show in the world. Prices of admission range from 25 cents to 50 cents in coast towns and generally $1 in interior towns like Fairbanks and Iditarod. When features of unusual merit or expense are put on the admission price is raised, having in a few instances been as high as $5 for extraordinary attractions.

The modern way of gardening. A quick and easy way to plant. All seeds tested. Garden seeds 40 ft. roll. Flower seeds 40 ft. roll. Price 10c. Elkay's Straw Hat Dye. Jet black, 25c. All other popular shades 25c.

Smith's Pharmacy Kodaks and Kodak Supplies THE REXALL STORE

Pakro Seed Tape

The modern way of gardening. A quick and easy way to plant. All seeds tested. Garden seeds 40 ft. roll. Flower seeds 40 ft. roll. Price 10c. Elkay's Straw Hat Dye. Jet black, 25c. All other popular shades 25c.

Smith's Pharmacy Kodaks and Kodak Supplies THE REXALL STORE

Pakro Seed Tape

The modern way of gardening. A quick and easy way to plant. All seeds tested. Garden seeds 40 ft. roll. Flower seeds 40 ft. roll. Price 10c. Elkay's Straw Hat Dye. Jet black, 25c. All other popular shades 25c.

Smith's Pharmacy Kodaks and Kodak Supplies THE REXALL STORE

Pakro Seed Tape

The modern way of gardening. A quick and easy way to plant. All seeds tested. Garden seeds 40 ft. roll. Flower seeds 40 ft. roll. Price 10c. Elkay's Straw Hat Dye. Jet black, 25c. All other popular shades 25c.

Smith's Pharmacy Kodaks and Kodak Supplies THE REXALL STORE

Pakro Seed Tape

The modern way of gardening. A quick and easy way to plant. All seeds tested. Garden seeds 40 ft. roll. Flower seeds 40 ft. roll. Price 10c. Elkay's Straw Hat Dye. Jet black, 25c. All other popular shades 25c.

Smith's Pharmacy Kodaks and Kodak Supplies THE REXALL STORE

Pakro Seed Tape

The modern way of gardening. A quick and easy way to plant. All seeds tested. Garden seeds 40 ft. roll. Flower seeds 40 ft. roll. Price 10c. Elkay's Straw Hat Dye. Jet black, 25c. All other popular shades 25c.

Smith's Pharmacy Kodaks and Kodak Supplies THE REXALL STORE

Pakro Seed Tape

The modern way of gardening. A quick and easy way to plant. All seeds tested. Garden seeds 40 ft. roll. Flower seeds 40 ft. roll. Price 10c. Elkay's Straw Hat Dye. Jet black, 25c. All other popular shades 25c.

Smith's Pharmacy Kodaks and Kodak Supplies THE REXALL STORE

Pakro Seed Tape

PYORRHOEA, the Gum Disease

Which loosens and destroys your entire mouthful of teeth if you neglect to have this trouble stopped.

Come in and see me. I am curing scores of the worst cases of Pyorrhoea.

The New Remedy I use gets results at once.

DR. F. T. RICHARDS

Dentist.
(Over Rehberg's.)
All work fully guaranteed.

Subscriptions For The New Government War Loan

Can be left at this Bank.

We are going to subscribe for a large block and we suggest that you advise us early as to the amount you wish to subscribe for also.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Established 1855.
The bank with the efficient service.
Open Saturday Evenings.

Team Work Pays You and our Savings Department

Save a check from each pay check. Open a Savings Account with this strong Bank and next year you will have a substantial amount here to your credit earning 3% compound interest 3%.

1.00 Opens a Bank 1.00
Merchants & Savings Bank
Oldest Savings Bank in Rock County.

CHIROPRACTOR E. H. Darrow, D. C.

The only Farmer School Graduate in Janesville.
If you are sick, here is the place to get well. Examination FREE.
Calls made anywhere at any time.
Office, 405 Jackson Bldg.
Residence phone, R. C. 527 Red.
I have the only Spinegrah X-Ray machine in Southern Wisconsin.

F. W. MILLER CHIROPRACTOR

409-410 Jackson Block.
R. C. Phone 179 Black.
Hours 9 A. M. to 6 P. M.
Lady Attendant.
Your Spine Examined Free.

Religious articles for sale. Crucifixes, prayer books, etc., at St. Joseph's convent.

Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, I. O. E. F., will confer the first degree Monday evening, April 30. All members, and especially the degree team, are urged to be present.

Notice is hereby given of the annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association to be held at the Y. M. C. A. building Tuesday evening, May 1st, at 7:30 o'clock, at which meeting five directors are to be elected, and other vacancies on the board of directors filled if they be any. The other usual business of the Association will also be transacted. Signed, W. W. DALE, Sec. B. of Dir.

Let us store your furniture and stoves. Talk to Lowell.

A Japanese Get Rich Quick Call. A broker in Tokyo, wishing to stimulate speculation among the English speaking residents, composed a great handbook at great pains and, printing it by some mimeographic means on a large sheet of paper reproducing handwriting, scattered it broadcast. The paper read:

"To the Widespread Public.—One who wants to make money why not try Stock business at such rare extraordinary chance? Even a fool, his pocket is swelling up every day. Why? Because he is darning it blindly. Waiting for your order. More or less yours faithfully, Okio Yonesaburo."—East and West News.

Big hosiery sale Saturday. Madden & Rue.

If you are looking for an investment read what is offered in the want column. Look for bargains in the want ads.

NOON HOUR MEETING BROUGHT OUT IDEAS

Gathering at Myers Hotel This Noon Secured Thoughts of Many Residents of Our County.

At a meeting of many delegates to the county defense league which organized at the city hall this afternoon, and the directors of the Janesville Commercial club at the Hotel Myers this noon, many matters of vital interest to the entire county were discussed and disposed of.

Talks were given by M. S. Dudgeon of the state defense board, John Baker of Evansville, Prof. Hatch of the college of agriculture of the state university, L. A. Markham, A. E. Matheson, and J. A. Craig. Conservation of the food supply by various methods, the great need of a simplicity of organization along this line to guard against a severe shortage, which might come through the misdirected efforts of too many organizations, and the planting of gardens, were topics discussed. One hundred dollars was allotted for the immediate use of the Commercial club treasury to meet the demand of those who desire to plant garden plots but who have not sufficient funds to purchase seed or prepare land. President George S. Parker and Secretary Kuhn of the Commercial club at once took up the matter of the Commercial club at once. L. A. Markham was made chairman of the committee to organize a county organization, with power to name his associates.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Emogene Wheeler Hill. The death of Mrs. Emogene Wheeler Hill, a resident of Rock county for some time, occurred this morning at the home of her son, Elbert Hill, at 1026 Carrington street. Mrs. Hill was sixty-eight years of age and had been seven years of her life had been spent in the county.

She was a native of Buffalo, N. Y., and was born April 13, 1850. After coming to the west with her parents, they resided in the town of Porter for several years. On June 7, 1870, she was united in marriage to John C. Hill in this city. In 1892 they took up their residence here. Mrs. Hill preceded her husband in death, his demise having occurred on May 8, 1915. Since the death of her husband Mrs. Hill had always resided in Janesville.

Mrs. Hill was a friend of all. Her kind and sympathetic disposition won for her a large circle of friends who will feel her loss deeply.

She leaves one son, Elbert Hill, a granddaughter, Emogene Hill of this city, and one brother, Charles Wheeler Hill of Milwaukee. The funeral will be held from the home of her son, 1026 Carrington street, at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Rev. C. E. Ewing officiating. Interment will be made in the Fulton cemetery.

Mrs. W. H. Newton. Mrs. W. H. Newton of Johnston, passed away Thursday. Mrs. Newton was eighty-four years of age. She suffered a stroke of paralysis ten days ago. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon, April 29th, at one o'clock, at the Baptist church in Johnston. Mrs. Newton leaves a daughter and two sons to mourn her loss. Mrs. A. E. Shumway of Johnston, and Carl B. Newton of Port Atkinson.

George W. Videtto. Last rites over the remains of the late George W. Videtto were read this afternoon by the Rev. Millar, district superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal church, at the late home at 330 Milton avenue. Members of the local lodge Knights of Pythias attended the services and conducted their fraternal services at the grave. The pallbearers were Pythians and were: F. H. Farnsworth, W. O. Newhouse, R. V. Jacobs, E. A. Billig, H. L. Jones and Clever. Interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Marie Esther Fletcher. The funeral of the late Mrs. Marie Esther Fletcher will be held at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the late home at 618 Milwaukee avenue, the Rev. E. C. Ewing, pastor of the First Congregational church, officiating.

Good Luck Oleo Lb. 27c Monsoon Flour Sack $3.28

Gold Medal Flour, sk. $3.45
Lincoln Oleo, lb. 22c
Crackerjack 20c Salmon 15c
Soy Beans, lb. 10c
Navy Beans lb. 18c, 2 for 35c
Lima Beans, lb. 20c
Sliced Sweet Cucumber

Pickles, dozen 10c
Dill Pickles, dozen 15c
2 for 25c
Sweet Mixed Pickles, pt. 15c
Bulk Olives, pt. 10c
Fine bulk Olives 10c
3 for 25c
Fine bulk Coffee, lb. 22c
Prunes 15c; 2 for 25c
Dried Peaches 18c; 2 for 35c
Dried Apples 15c
2 for 25c
Potatoes, pk. 25c
Rutabagas, per peck 50c
Dried Onions, lb. 13c
Oranges, doz. 15c
Bananas, doz. 25c
Canadian Jonathan Apples, lb. 7c; 4 for 25c

GREEN VEGETABLES
Onions, bunch 5c
Radishes, doz. 5c
Lettuce, lb. 25c
FRESH & COLD MEATS
We have Shurtleff's Ice Cream at all times.
Get your gasoline at a filtered filling station.
This store is open every day of the week.

B. J. Jones FIRST WARD SANITARY GROCERY

Bell Phones 119 and 2253.
R. C. 681 Red.

W. B. Doty is representative for the Gazette. Orders for display and classified advertising and subscriptions will receive careful attention. Phone 300 or 174.

Month end sale now on. Madden & Rue.

Adjourn Action: The action of Frank C. Spohn versus Fred Burton to secure damages to his automobile following a collision with Burton's machine, came up in municipal court yesterday, but was adjourned to May 15th.

EAT SKINNER'S THE BEST MACARONI

MADE FROM THE HIGHEST GRADE DURUM WHEAT COOKS IN 12 MINUTES. COOK BOOK FREE SKINNER MFG. CO. OMAHA, U.S.A. Largest Macaroni Factory in America.

PICNIC HAMS
Home Made Metwurst.
Summer Sausage.
Choice Baby Steer Beef, any cut you wish.
Home Dressed Veal.
Lamb and Young Mutton.
Broilers and Year Old Chickens.
Home Dressed Pig Pork.
Home Made Pork Sausage, bulk, link and midgets.
Mustard, 10c bottle.
Prompt deliveries to any part of the city.

J. F. SCHOFF
The Market on the Square
Both 'Phones.

Saturday Special

With Tea and Coffee Orders.
KELLOGG'S CORN FLAKES 8c
SKERRED WHEAT BISCUIT AT 10c
CREAM OF WHEAT 14c

For Friday and Saturday we offer our coffee and tea customers the above special prices on breakfast foods. With every pound of coffee or every half pound of tea you may include one package of breakfast food at these prices. Two packages with two pounds of coffee or one pound of coffee and half pound of tea.

Premium Checks will be included with all coffee and tea the same as usual. It pays to save our Premium Checks.
Telephone orders delivered promptly. Both Phones.

Janesville Spice Co. Milwaukee St. Bridge.

HIGH GRADE TEAS AND COFFEE.

WM. LENZ Marvel Flour $3.40 per sack. Strictly Fresh Eggs per dozen 32c

Best Green Japan Tea, lb. 45c
Best Black Tea, lb. 45c
Koban Coffee, lb. 25c
Gold Bond Coffee, lb. 25c
A Good Coffee, at lb. 20c
Tea Dust, pkg. 15c
Macaroni, box. 18c
Raisins, 2 pkgs. 25c
Large Prunes, lb. 15c
Dried Peaches, lb. 15c
2 lbs. 25c
Grandma's Soap, 7 bars 25c
2 lbs. Mixed Cookies 25c
Corn and Peas, can 12c
Kidney Beans, 2 cans 25c
Pork and Beans, can 15c
Large can Sauer Kraut 15c
Bulk Peanut Butter, 2 lbs. 30c
Pearl Barley, 3 lbs. 25c
Red Salmon, tall can 22c
Large flat can Salmon 25c
Large Dill Pickles, doz. 15c
Sour and Sweet Pickles, dozen 12c
Oil Sardines, box 8c
Holland Herring, lb. 12c
Chow Chow, bottle 10c
Calumet Baking Powder, box 18c
Four cans Kitchen Kleanser for 15c
3 lbs. large Head Rice 25c
Mild American Cheese 25c
5 rolls Toilet Paper 25c
Oranges, doz. 20c, 25c, 30c
All kinds of fresh vegetables and fruits.

PLEASE ORDER EARLY

Soverhill Butter 46c

We want everybody to try this fine dairy butter. Pound prints; special this day only, 46c each. Regular price 50c.

Fine lot Fresh Vegetables and Strawberries for Saturday's demands.
Special lot juicy, sweet Navel Oranges at 25c doz.
4 Grape Fruit, 25c.
Fresh Bbl. Salted Peanuts 15c lb.
Home Roasted Peanuts 15c
New Potatoes, 10c lb.
Baking Potatoes, 95c pk.
2 lbs. fine Spanish Figs 25c
Makes a delicious, healthful sauce.
"Pal." Chocolates at 35c and 10c box.
Mailards fine bulk and package Chocolates, Cocoa, etc.
Keep a good supply of Sugar, Rice and Flour on hand.

Dedrick Bros.

Three "Bits": Fines of fifteen dollars and costs or jail sentences of twenty days each were handed to Charles Morgan, Philip Carney and David Cunningham by Judge Maxfield in police court this morning, after the trio pleaded guilty to intoxication charges.

Correction: The Gazette today was informed that it was W. J. and not Al. Hilt who yesterday stopped the runaway team of Gene Fish.

10 1/2 Lbs. Pure Granulated Sugar $1.00

WITH GROCERY ORDER ONLY.

6 bars Bob White Soap. 25c
3 pkgs. Macaroni or Spaghetti. 25c
5 boxes Searchlight Matches for 24c
Large Sour Pickles, pt. 15c
Sweet Mixed Pickles, pt. 15c
4 rolls Toilet Paper. 23c
Large Sweet Juicy Oranges, dozen 30c
Qt. jar large Queen Olives for 28c
6 pkgs. Washing Powder 25c
Pure Rendered Lard, lb. 28c
3 bottles Ammonia or Blueing can Black Cherries. 18c
2 lbs. large Dry Peaches 28c
2 lbs. Extra Large Prunes for 28c
3-lb. can Hominy 13c
One-half pound Cocoa 21c
2 pkg. Cream of Rice 25c
2 pkgs. Shredded Wheat Biscuit 25c

F. C. SPOHN
407 S. Jackson St.
Both Phones.
We do our own delivering.

CUDAHY'S Cash Market

THE HOME OF QUALITY, SERVICE & LOW PRICES
Cash Prices for Saturday

Native Steer Beef.
Choice Pot Roast, lb. 18c, 20c, 22c
Plate Boiling Beef, lb. 15c
Fresh Ground Hamburger, lb. 20c
Home Made Pork Sausage, lb. 20c
Home Made Bologna, lb. 18c
Home Made Liver Sausage, lb. 18c
Plenty Fresh Calves' Liver, lb. 25c
Fresh Beef Liver, lb. 15c
Fresh Pig Liver, lb. 12 1/2c
Fresh Pig Hearts, lb. 15c
Fancy Milk Fed Veal 20c
Shoulder Veal, lb. 20c
Veal Breast or Neck, lb. 16c
Veal Hearts or Tongues, lb. 15c
Salted Beef Tongues, lb. 22c
Salted Spareribs, lb. 15c
Oleomargarine, Good Luck or Moxley's 27c
Raisins, Dried Apples or Peaches, lb. 12 1/2c
Fancy Large Prunes, lb. 15c
Pure Lard, lb. 25c
60-lb. Tubs, lb. 24c

M. REUTER, Mgr.
We deliver. Both 'phones.

Soverhill Butter 46c

We want everybody to try this fine dairy butter. Pound prints; special this day only, 46c each. Regular price 50c.

Fine lot Fresh Vegetables and Strawberries for Saturday's demands.
Special lot juicy, sweet Navel Oranges at 25c doz.
4 Grape Fruit, 25c.
Fresh Bbl. Salted Peanuts 15c lb.
Home Roasted Peanuts 15c
New Potatoes, 10c lb.
Baking Potatoes, 95c pk.
2 lbs. fine Spanish Figs 25c
Makes a delicious, healthful sauce.
"Pal." Chocolates at 35c and 10c box.
Mailards fine bulk and package Chocolates, Cocoa, etc.
Keep a good supply of Sugar, Rice and Flour on hand.

Dedrick Bros.

SALE OF CHILDREN'S DRESSES. We will put on sale for tomorrow one big lot of Children's Gingham and Percale Dresses, age 2 to 14. Very special for tomorrow at $1.19. Third floor.

J. M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

Read the want ads for bargains.

WINSLOW'S Cash Grocery

10 lbs. Best Granulated Sugar $1.00
Golden Palace Flour $3.60 sk.

Sugar and flour will both be higher.

300 Loaves Fresh White Bread 8c, 2 for 15c
Large Cal. Prunes 15c lb.

Cal. Navel Oranges 176 size regular 30c oranges 25c doz.

Orfordville and Advance Creamery Butter 47c lb.

Good Luck Oleo, lb. 27c
20c bottle Vanilla Extract for 15c
3 10c bottles Prepared Mustard 25c
3 10c glasses ground horse-radish 25c

3 Large Bottles Pure Cider Vinegar 25c

5 10c pkgs. Monarch Corn Flakes 25c
3 lbs. large Head Rice 25c
2 pkgs. Seeded Raisins 25c
3 pkgs. Nonesuch Mince Meat 18c
Navy Beans, lb. 15c
1 lb. best 50c Japan Tea, lb. 40c
1 lb. Walter Baker's Chocolate 35c
1-lb. pkg. Shredded Coconut 20c
1 qt. jar Olives 25c
Large jar Stuffed Olives 25c
Macaroni and Spaghetti, pkg. 10c; 3 for 25c
Arm and Hammer Soda 7c
4 for 25c
Pkg. Dates and Figs, pkg. 12c
Marshmallows, lb. 20c
Hebe Brand Milk Condensed 5c and 10c
1-lb. can Calumet Baking Powder 18c
Kellogg's Corn Flakes, pkg. 10c
Cream of Wheat, pkg. 17c
Shredded Wheat Biscuit 10c
Farm House Bran, lb. 10c
Jello, all flavors, pkg. 8c
Postum Cereal, pkg. 22c
Pure Lard, lb. 28c
Rexine, can 10c
3 cans Old Dutch Cleanser for 25c
6 bars Crystal White Soap for 25c
7 cans Swift's Sunbrite Cleanser 25c
Franklin McVeagh 6 o'clock Coffee, lb. 30c; 3 lbs. 85c
Monarch Coffee, lb. 32c
3 lbs. 90c
Salvo, Old Time and Pride of Holland Coffee, 28c
Farm House Coffee, lb. 22c
Standard can Corn, 2 cans for 25c
Early June Peas, can 12c
Large can Tomatoes 18c
3 large can Hominy 25c
Large can Sliced Pineapple for 20c
Campbell's Baked Beans, can 15c
Yeast Foam and Magic Yeast, pkg. 3c
Dill Pickles, doz. 15c
Fresh Crisp Oyster Crackers, lb. 12c
Plain Soda Crackers, lb. 13c
Salt Soda Wafers, lb. 14c
Fresh Graham Crackers, lb. 15c
Full line Fresh Vegetables.

E. R. WINSLOW
24 N. Main.
Rock Co. Phone 372.
Old phone 504.

Wanted!
$75,000 in Rock County Real Estate Mortgages.

It is the policy of this bank to invest its funds in mortgages secured by Rock County real estate, which it believes to be the safest investment obtainable.

ROCK COUNTY SAVINGS & TRUST CO.
P. H. Jackman, Pres. W. E. Hyzer, Sec'y.

Janesville MEAT HOUSE

Cash Prices for Saturday DELIVERED TO ANY PART OF THE CITY NOTICE THE BIG DROP IN PRICES.

Rump Corn Beef 15c
Best Pot Roast 15c
Plate Beef 12 1/2c
Rib Roast 15c
Home Grown Milk Fed Veal Stew 15c
Veal Shoulder Roast 18c
Veal Chops 25c
Leg of Veal 25c
Veal Steak 30c
Home Made Sausage. Bologna 15c
Liver Sausage 15c
Home Made Lard 25c
Pork Chops 25c
Peas, can 10c
Our Special Oleo 22c
A Good Bacon 30c

A. G. Metzinger
—PHONES—
New, 56. Old, 436.

Creamery Butter lb. 47c 3 lbs. Head Rice 25c 7 Cans Kitchen Kleanser 25c Bulk Peanut Butter lb. 15c

Green Onions, Lettuce, Celery, Asparagus, Potatoes, Radishes and New Carrots.
Fresh Strawberries.
Parsnips, Rutabagas and Carrots.

Home made Fruit Cookies, dozen 25c
2 lbs. Spanish Figs 25c
Monarch Corn Flakes, pkg. 10c
Cranberries, lb. 10c
White Comb Honey, lb. 18c
Eating and Cooking Apples, lb. 7c
26 oz. jar Chow Chow 25c
Quart Jar Olives 30c
28 oz. jar Farmhouse Preserves 30c
Savoy Pure Fruit Preserves, jar 15c and 25c
Jelly, glass 10c, 15c and 25c
Red Raspberries, can 15c, 30c
Black Raspberries, can 15c
Savoy Blueberries, can 18c
Red pitted Cherries, can 15c
Royal Anne White Cherries, large can 30c
Savoy Blackberries and Loganberries, can 25c

Rrime Rib Roast Steer Beef lb. 22c
Best Steer Pot Roast, lb. 20c and 22c
Yearling Mutton and Milk-fed Veal.
Fresh, meaty Spare-ribs, lb. 19c
Small Pork Loins and Boston Butts.
Home Salt Pork, lb. 25c
Side-made Pork Sausage, lb. 25c
Fresh cut Hamburger, lb. 22c
Small, lean Picnic Hams, lb. 24c
Sausages and Cured Meats of all kinds.
Swift's Cottoquet, lb. 22c

Roesling Bros.
SEVEN PHONES—ALL 128.
GROCERIES AND MEATS

If you are looking for an investment read what is offered in the want column.

WANTED!

$75,000 in Rock County Real Estate Mortgages.

It is the policy of this bank to invest its funds in mortgages secured by Rock County real estate, which it believes to be the safest investment obtainable.

ROCK COUNTY SAVINGS & TRUST CO.
P. H. Jackman, Pres. W. E. Hyzer, Sec'y.

Janesville MEAT HOUSE

Cash Prices for Saturday DELIVERED TO ANY PART OF THE CITY NOTICE THE BIG DROP IN PRICES.

Rump Corn Beef 15c
Best Pot Roast 15c
Plate Beef 12 1/2c
Rib Roast 15c
Home Grown Milk Fed Veal Stew 15c
Veal Shoulder Roast 18c
Veal Chops 25c
Leg of Veal 25c
Veal Steak 30c
Home Made Sausage. Bologna 15c
Liver Sausage 15c
Home Made Lard 25c
Pork Chops 25c
Peas, can 10c
Our Special Oleo 22c
A Good Bacon 30c

A. G. Metzinger
—PHONES—
New, 56. Old, 436.

Creamery Butter lb. 47c 3 lbs. Head Rice 25c 7 Cans Kitchen Kleanser 25c Bulk Peanut Butter lb. 15c

Green Onions, Lettuce, Celery, Asparagus, Potatoes, Radishes and New Carrots.
Fresh Strawberries.
Parsnips, Rutabagas and Carrots.

Home made Fruit Cookies, dozen 25c
2 lbs. Spanish Figs 25c
Monarch Corn Flakes, pkg. 10c
Cranberries, lb. 10c
White Comb Honey, lb. 18c
Eating and Cooking Apples, lb. 7c
26 oz. jar Chow Chow 25c
Quart Jar Olives 30c
28 oz. jar Farmhouse Preserves 30c
Savoy Pure Fruit Preserves, jar 15c and 25c
Jelly, glass 10c, 15c and 25c
Red Raspberries, can 15c, 30c
Black Raspberries, can 15c
Savoy Blueberries, can 18c
Red pitted Cherries, can 15c
Royal Anne White Cherries, large can 30c
Savoy Blackberries and Loganberries, can 25c

Rrime Rib Roast Steer Beef lb. 22c
Best Steer Pot Roast, lb. 20c and 22c
Yearling Mutton and Milk-fed Veal.
Fresh, meaty Spare-ribs, lb. 19c
Small Pork Loins and Boston Butts.
Home Salt Pork, lb. 25c
Side-made Pork Sausage, lb. 25c
Fresh cut Hamburger, lb. 22c
Small, lean Picnic Hams, lb. 24c
Sausages and Cured Meats of all kinds.
Swift's Cottoquet, lb. 22c

Roesling Bros.
SEVEN PHONES—ALL 128.
GROCERIES AND MEATS

If you are looking for an investment read what is offered in the want column.

FAIR STORE

Best Make Creamery Butter, lb. 42c
Fresh made and sweet.
California Navel Oranges, doz. Price 12c 14c 16c 18c 20c 22c 24c 26c 28c 30c 32c 34c 36c 38c 40c 42c 44c 46c 48c 50c 52c 54c 56c 58c 60c
Good Sized Lemons, doz. 20c
30 to 40 size Santa Clara Prunes, lb. 15c
Choice Peaches, lb. 10c; 3 for 25c
Large Red Eating Apples, pk. 55c

DRY GOODS DEP'T.
Another Big Shipment of Hats.
Chiffon Taffeta one yard wide, $1.48.
Tub Silk, a good assortment, 29c.
Mocimil, Poplin, black and colors, 29c yard.
Dress Gingham and yard wide Percale, 15c.
Linen Marquisette for curtains, 25c up.
Curtain Serims, white and colored, 10c, 12 1/2c.
Lace Curtains, white and cream.
Couch Covers, Persian patterns, $1.75.
Table Linens, 72 inches wide, $1.25 and $1.50.
Table Damask, white and colored, 29c and 59c.
Ladies' House Dresses, $1.00 and $1.25 up.
Ladies' Kimonos, $1.00, $1.50 and $1.75.
Sateen and Heatherbloom Skirts, black and colored, $1 and $1.50.
Gingham and Rippelotte Skirts 55c.
Ladies' Slip-over Gowns, 50c, 75c and $1.00.
Fancy Corset Covers, 25c, 50c and 75c.
Long Sleeve Corset Covers, 29c.
Gauze Vests, shaped, 15c, 19c and 25c.
Children's Dresses, 50c, 75c, $1. and $2.75.
Boys' Wash Suits, 59c up.
Silk Gloves and Chamouade 59c.

Announcement
On and after the first of May our business will be operated on a strictly cash basis.

Low Prices
We hope by this system to give our patrons better service and lower prices. Our prices will be as low on all our groceries as the existing market conditions will allow. Watch for them.

The Janesville Tea Company
20 South River St.

STUPP'S Cash Market

Specials for Saturday
Fresh Pig's Feet 8c
Pickled Pig's Feet 10c
Horseradish 10c
Sardines 10c
Karo Syrup 10c
Baked Beans 10c
Liver Sausage 15c
Hamburg 16c
Sausage Meat 16c
Spareribs 16c
Good Pot Roast 16c
Best Pot Roast 18c
Short Steak 18c
Round Steak 22c
Sirloin Steak 22c
Pork Shoulder 22c and 24c
Pork Steak 24c
Pork Loin 24c
Pork Chops 24c
Veal Stew 17c
Veal Chops 24c
Veal Roast 20c
Veal Steak 28c
Jowl Bacon 22c
Leg Mutton 22c

St

Apollo

Matinee daily at 2:30
Evening 7:30 and 9:00
TONIGHT FEATURE
VAUDEVILLE

Also on Saturday and Sunday.

Russell Quintette
Singing and Instrumental—Classic Entertainers.

Jule, Jane & Lewis
In "Waiting for a Girl."
Singing, Dancing and Juggling.

Callahan & Callahan
Presenting "After the Race"

Nora & Sydney Kellog
In "The Music Room"

Mrs. VERNON CASTLE
In "PATRIA" No. 9

Matinee, 10c.
Evenings, 10c and 20c.

News Notes from Movieland

BY DAISY DEAN

Madge Kennedy, who is known to millions of Americans through her delightful work in popular farces, now a screen star, is the author of "A Creed for the Alien," which is being published widely throughout the country.

This is her contribution to the cause of national patriotism. All that I sacrificed in other lands America has restored to me; more Liberty, more opportunity, more freedom from intolerance and persecution.

Equality without a parallel in the history of all the people who ever populated the earth. Rulership shared only by right and righteousness; a land where conscience shapes our destinies, interlocking all races and creating for the common good. How dare I become the exception?

Calling us from the world's farthest corners to form a blood brotherhood.

All for each other. That is the meaning of the American Union under which I flourish.

United in common causes; holding together in the face of world-wide jealousies and envy. No nation can challenge us with impunity.

Daring and defying the entire world to attempt breaking the bond that binds strong men together. Invincible as representing the world's liberty-loving people, pleading their faith to a flag of freedom.

Voicing always a protest against oppression against a weaker class being exploited by a stronger class.

M. SWAYNE as Mona, the Deemster's daughter, in the film version of Hall Caine's novel, "The Deemster."

Intent upon protecting our rights even at the point of armed conflict. Determined, deep-rooted in its love of humanity and ready to battle for its national convictions. Enemies—no matter how powerful and ruthless—produce in it no fears. Destiny is writ large in the future of such a nation.

"If every alien will pause and think after reading this," says Madge Kennedy, "he will see his own relation to the United States of America."

M. SWAYNE as Mona, the Deemster's daughter, in the film version of Hall Caine's novel, "The Deemster."

STAR GAZER
Jean Sothern, psychologist says, has "division of personality." This is not a disease, but a gift, rather valuable to an actress in these days of double roles. Besides this Miss Sothern can read the future in stars and crystal balls and things. These developments all seem to have developed during the filming of "A Mother's Ordeal," in which she has two widely different roles.

Billie West has been chosen as Harold Lockwood's leading woman in the coming York-Metro picture, "The Secret Spring." Miss West was formerly with D. W. Griffith.

Fritz Kreisler, famous violinist, visited Universal City recently and was "shot" in a cabaret scene.

Gale Kane collects bathing suits. She's got them from every country in the world.

"INTOLERANCE" WAS MASSIVE, WONDERFUL

D. W. Griffith's Much Heralded Picture Now Being Shown at Myers Theatre Surely Impressive.

Produced by D. W. Griffith. Presented at Myers Theatre. PRINCIPAL CHARACTERS. The woman who has the candle. Marking changes from one story to another. Lillian Gish (The Modern Story.)

The Dear One. Mae Marsh Her Father, a mill worker. Fred Turner The Boy. Robert Harron Mary T. Jenkins. Vera Lewis A Friendless One. Miriam Cooper Slum Musketeer. Walter Long Uplifters, prison attendants, etc. (The Judean Story.) Mary, the mother. Lillian Langdon Mary Magdalene. Olga Grey Bride of Cana. Bessie Love Pharisees, etc. (Medieval French Story.)

Brown Eyes. Margery Wilson Prosper. Eugene Pallette Charles IX of France. Frank Bennett Catherine de Medici. Josephine Crowell Henry of Navarre. B. Lawrence Admiral Coligny. Joseph Henabery (Babylonian Story.) Mountain Girl. Constance Talmadge Belsazzar. Alfred Faget The Princess Beloved. Seena Owen High Priest of Bel. Tully Marshall Cyrus. George Siegmann

D. W. Griffith decided that reform was not good and therefore produced his famous picture, "Intolerance," a spectacle which dazzles by its stupendousness, to prove his point. Through over three hours he holds you still, tense and gasping, fairly hypnotized by sound, color and the swift and perfect action that is marred by no flaws of production. When the last curtain falls, mentally you feel with it. Your brain is all of a heap. And you say to your neighbor, as your neighbor says to you:

"Wasn't it wonderful—wonderful? But what was it all about?" Four stories are threaded through the entire production. They are designated as the modern story, the Judean story, the medieval French story and the Babylonian story.

The modern story has to do with a Miss Jenkins, a maiden lady soured on life because the romance of youth has passed her by and she goes in heavily for reform. Mae Marsh and Robert Harron are the innocent and unhappy victims of this story. Here Mae Marsh does some of the greatest acting of her career. Work that is nothing short of marvelous.

The Judean story is the old one of the "Intolerance" that stoned the stoning woman and crucified the Christ. In the medieval French story, Catherine de Medici and her plottings are explicated. The massacre of the Protestants on St. Bartholomew's morn is portrayed with frightful horror of detail. Again—intolerance.

And, then, to Babylon, where Belsazzar, ruling for his father, Nabonidus, lolling in ease and comfort and worshipping Ishtar, the goddess of love, excites the hatred of the high priests of Bel, who betray him to Cyrus, the Persian. The storming and final fall of Babylon provides a monstrous, eye-dazzling and astounding spectacle. Wild music, the boom of battering rams, the hideous crashing towers as they fall, furnish thrills enough to last anyone quite some time.

A special orchestra and chorus added much to the effectiveness of the picture.

Look for bargains in the want ads. If you are looking for an investment read what is offered in the want columns.

GUARANTY NECESSARY FOR "FLORA BELLA"

The Smashing N. Y. Casino Theatre Musical Comedy Success. Direct from the Casino Theatre New York. Only one hundred and fifty more names are necessary in order to make certain the appearance here on Sunday May 6th of John Cort's beautiful production of "Flora Bella" the smashing New York Casino Theatre musical comedy success, direct from the Casino Theatre New York.

When one stops to consider that the company is the original and includes such well known musical comedy stars as Miss Eleanor Henery, Miss Kate Stout, Miss Ruth Robbins, Irving Brooks, Guy J. Sampson, Mortimore H. Weldon, Adolph Link; in fact the entire original New York Casino Theatre cast, a large chorus of well trained and disciplined voices and a special orchestra, the theatre going people of Janesville and vicinity should be more than eager to subscribe most liberally for this meritorious musical comedy treat.

Mr. I. A. Lacy will leave the list with manager Bransky who will continue his efforts in order to secure the guarantee necessary, and all those who wish to subscribe may do so by calling at the Meyers Theatre box office or calling the box office on the "Phone" and having your name placed on the list as many tickets as you can use.

Mr. Matt. Kussell, Mr. Cort's business manager will be in the city Saturday at which time it will be decided whether Janesville is to have "Flora Bella" or not.

RAILROADS' INCOMES SHOW A DECIDED DROPPING OFF

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Washington, April 27.—Operating income of the railroads decreased approximately $22,335,000 during February, notwithstanding an increase of $25,000,000 in the total operating revenues, according to the monthly summary of reports made public today by the interstate commerce commission.

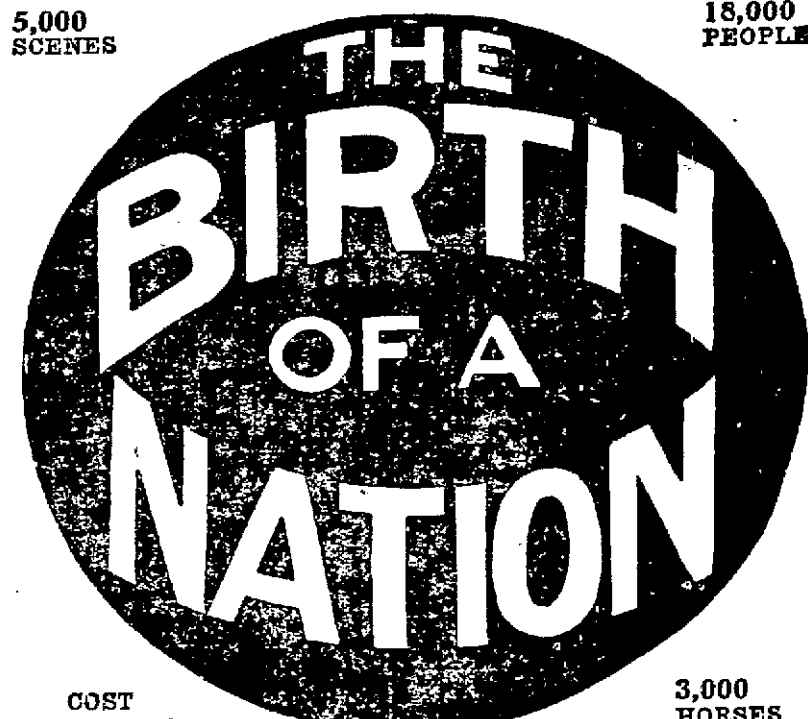

BEVERLY THEATRE BEAUTIFUL

Twice Daily—Afternoons at 2:15; Evenings at 8:15

TWO DAYS ONLY--TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY

The Most Stupendous Production Ever Witnessed

D. W. GRIFFITH'S EIGHTH WONDER OF THE WORLD

Ashton Stevens in the Chicago Examiner, says: "THE BIRTH OF A NATION" is the best, the most native drama ever written by an American—it is the most dramatic work in all American drama—and that goes for stage as well as screen.

COST
$500,000.00

3,000 HORSES

SPECIAL MUSIC

Bargain Sale Prices Matinee, all seats, 25c. Night, 25c and 50c. All seats reserved for matinee and night. SECURE RESERVED SEATS NOW.

FROM COAST TO COAST
THE MOST STUPENDOUS DRAMATIC SENSATION
THIS COUNTRY HAS EVER KNOWN

Apollo

Matinee daily at 2:30
Evening 7:30 and 9:00

EXTRA SPECIAL

On April 30, May 1st and 2d
VITAGRAPH

Presents
America's Daintiest Actress

ANITA STEWART

—IN—
"THE GIRL PHILIPPA"

By Robert W. Chambers
With an all star Vitagraph Cast.

Seats reserved now. Phone your orders.
All seats, 20c

BEVERLY Special For Today

BIG FEATURE PROGRAM
MARGARET GIBSON in

"The Island of Desire"

Five Acts

USUAL COMEDY TODAY
EXTRA—TODAY—EXTRA

Miss Lucille Atkins

in New Songs.
Entire change of songs daily

SATURDAY
Triangle Program
ROBERT HARRON in
"The Bad Boy"

and Other Big Features,
Also LUCILLE ATKINS in New Songs.

First Show on Saturday and Sunday Nights Starts
Promptly at 7 P. M.

SECURE TICKETS NOW FOR

"THE BIRTH OF A NATION"
HERE TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

Have You Seen "Pidgin Island"?

IF NOT

GO TONIGHT

at 7:30 or 9:00

AND SEE

HAROLD LOCKWOOD and MAY ALLISON

In This Wonderful Production

MAJESTIC

To the Theatre-goers of the World:

My aim in producing "INTOLERANCE" was to express through a new art form the aspirations and conflicts which have spurred humanity to greater achievements in every cycle of the world's development.

Babylon, Jerusalem, mediaeval Paris and the stirring things of contemporary life are shown in the flash of events. Time and space are annihilated. Twenty-five centuries are covered by the rule of measurement, but I hold that a theme is greater than the unities of a decadent drama.

As four parallel stories merge to their mighty climax LOVE is revealed as the conquering force which binds the universe. If "INTOLERANCE" makes you respond to one-tenth of the narrative its purpose has been fully served.

MYERS THEATRE 4 DAYS COMMENCING THURSDAY NIGHT APRIL 26th

TWICE DAILY—Matinees at 2:15—Nights at 8:15

PRICES: Matinees, 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.00. Nights, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.50. Special attention given to out of town mail orders when accompanied by check or money order.

Evil Speaking

By REV. JAMES M. GRAY, D.D.
Dean of Moody Bible Institute,
Chicago

TEXT—Speak not evil one of another, brethren.—James 4:11.

Evil speaking has been a reigning offense in every age. It was for this among other causes that God gave up the heathen to a reprobate mind because they were filled with all unrighteousness—whisperers, backbiters, spiteful, inventors of evil things. Nor did Christianity immediately and thoroughly reform this evil even among believers. We find Paul saying to the church at Corinth: "I feel lest there be among you debates, envyings, hackbittings, whisperings, swellings, tumults."

The evil speaking we have to guard against is not so much the flagrant lie and the reviling speech, but the private ways of calumny—the ungrounded and false rumors, the unkind constructions, the ready acceptance of bad reports, the carrying of tales and a disposition to dwell upon the worst rather than the best in people. As someone has said, this is what the flies do—skip over what is sound in men and alight upon their sores.

There are some lives so blameless that even malice is ashamed to vent its spite against them, and yet there is a way of accomplishing the evil purpose even in their case. Their whole character may not be attacked but assaults made upon parts of it. The edges will be nibbled at and the borders of their good name clipped away. Someone says that "so-and-so is a very accomplished person," and we reply that "probably he knows it pretty well!" This does not say that he is proud or vain, but it comes so near to it that there is no need to say it. If another is commended for his good works we can add that "doubtless he has his own particular ends in view."

All Are Exposed to It.
One would think it would deter us from evil speaking of another to reflect how we ourselves are exposed to the same danger. The Scripture says: "Take heed if ye bite and devour one another that ye be not consumed one of another." It is a game that two can play at. The devil who instigated your slander against your neighbor can employ your neighbor to instigate a similar slander against you.

And then there is the other thought that when we search into the corners of our life and ransack the garret and cellar of our corrupt nature, many things may be found for occasion against us as well as there. As Paul said to the Galatians, "If a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual restore such an one in the spirit of meekness, considering thyself lest ye also be tempted." In other words shame for our sins should be a covering for our brother's sins, and recognition of our own weakness should make us compassionate toward him.

We shall find that as we cease being evil listeners we lessen the temptation to be evil speakers. All conversation is kept up by exchange, and if one brings you a story it will seem as inevitable not to repay him with an answer. Therefore if he accuses A and you will condemn B, and thus it goes. The Scripture says again, "Thou shalt not receive a false report."

Keeping the Balance.
Of course there is a prudent observation of each other's conduct which should be practiced by Christians and there may be a useful impartation to each other of what we have seen and known, not what we have heard or guessed. For self-defense, for the sake of justice, for the love of others, it may be necessary to proclaim our testimony. But this is not speaking evil of one another for it is done with an honest purpose and a harmless mind. As William Cullen Bryant says:

Dear ties of mutual succor bind
The children of our feeble race,
And if our brethren were not kind,
This earth were but a weary place.

We lean on others as we walk,
Life's twilight path with pitfalls strewn,
And 'twere an idle boast to talk
Of treading that dim path alone!

In vain, however, does the Christian preacher inveigh against a wrong thing like this, or exhort to a righteous one, except as he points out the power by which the one may be avoided and the other attained. That power is Jesus Christ. To the Christian, i. e., the truly regenerated man, there should be no mystery in this. He should know that if he surrenders himself to the Spirit of the Lord who dwells within him, he will receive power to become a child of God in deed as well as in name.

And to the man who is not a Christian, the advice is practically the same. Let him accept Jesus Christ by faith as his Savior and confess him as his Lord, and he will discover that he is able not only to redeem him from the guilt of sin, but keep him day by day from its power. Yes, even from its power as expressed in an evil tongue.

HAPPY THOUGHT
Among other Ups and Downs in Life are the High Times today and the Low Spirits tomorrow.

"Had I the chance you'd know I am At acting unparalyzed!" says Greef; You'd notice this about a Ham, He surely likes to be free!

Many special bargains each day in the want columns. Read them.

Pleasant Fields Of Holy Writ

Shakespeare and the Bible: And he said, The Lord is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer. 2 Samuel XXII. 2.
Well let them practise and converse with spirits, in whose conquering name Let us resolve to scale their flinty bulwarks.
Henry VI., 1st Part II. 1.

THE INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
Second Quarter, Lesson V. John XII. 12-19. April 29, 1917.

JESUS WELCOMED AS KING.

Jesus left the white embowered villa on the east slope of Olivet, on the morning of a day corresponding to our Sunday. He joined Himself, in a conspicuous manner, to the pilgrim caravan on its way to the festivities of the Passover week. He was enthusiastically welcomed. These Galilean travelers had a local pride in the wonder-working Prophet of Nazareth. They felt it an honor to be His escort to Jerusalem. They took their way over the southern shoulder of the fig-and-olive-crowned mount.

Jesus commissioned two of the apostles to hasten on and bring the beast on which He should ride. It would not be necessary for them to catch it in the field. They would find it tethered by the roadside, as if put there for His service. Mention of His name and need would be all that was necessary to obtain the loan of it. This comparatively insignificant incident, the demand for the beast, hastily reported from mouth to mouth along the crowded thoroughfare, would serve notice of Jesus' approach. Up from a thousand pilgrims' booths, on the slopes of Olivet, the public garden of Jerusalem, and the camping ground of those whom the city could not hold, came an eager throng; out from the city gate came pouring another ever-augmenting multitude of those who were only waiting the signal of Jesus' approach.

He was mounted now, and so in plain view of the largest possible number. He rode a beast considered appropriate for a sacred function—one never ridden before. As only an ox that had never worn the yoke was esteemed fit for the altar, so this foal that had never been saddled was meet for the Master's use.

Such a transport of admiring loyalty seized that mighty throng as made all former oblations seem faint in comparison. The palm-trees were stripped to provide the emblems of victory. Ten thousand cloaks were proffered to carpet the highway with a litter—a mattress of twigs and a litter of grass was formed, so that the King's beast might tread softly beneath Him.

And now the multitude, with that skill at improvisation which is a characteristic of the East, bursts forth in a noble psalm of welcome, the rear guard responding antiphonally to the advance.

THE TEACHER'S LANTERN.

The triumphal entry was not a mere passing incident—an accident of Jesus' approach. It was a very large event. Jesus deliberately planned His entry—designed to make it as effective as possible. He was not captured by the multitude; He captured it, and used it for His purpose. The orderly precision of all His movements indicates that the royal entry was an integral part of the history of Christ which would not be complete nor thoroughly consistent without it. He openly came unto His own. The issue was pressed. They must accept or reject. The test was not made in any dark corner, either. Nothing could have been more conspicuous. A triumphal entry, true! But how many points of contrast it presents to all other "triumphs" with which the world is familiar! The meekness of the Victor; the lowliness of His equipage; the absence of captives and spoils—a triumph accorded, not by the chiefs of Church or State, but by the common people. Yet, the comparison to it, even of Pompey's famed triumph, pales with such significance for the race. Riding upon an ass is interpreted by some as a token of humility. It must be remembered, however, that the ass is not all other "triumphs" with which the world is familiar. It is "statelier, livelier, swifter than with us." The white ass was the favorite animal of prophets and kings.

April 29, 1917. Isaiah LX. 1-6. MISSIONARY OPPORTUNITIES IN LATIN AMERICA.

Economic tokens indicate that the Latin States of the West Hemisphere are soon to take advanced positions in the world's commercial life. Their inexhaustible resources are comparatively untouched and undeveloped. They excite the lust and rivalry of the older nations. It is the high privilege of the Church to put its impress on this civilization in the making, to inculcate its maxims and infuse its principles in new powers rising in wealth, prestige, ambition and intelligence. The hour is psychological. What is done now will count more than greater efforts at later dates. Prejudice can be disarmed and removed by genuine philanthropic effort. The Good Samaritan makes the best of all preachers and missionaries. A railroad king said lately that what the Latin Americans need is "to be fed up." They also need to be taught the principles and practice of sanitation. These may be stepping-stones to religion and happiness.

WHATCHAMA COLUMN

Babies.
The baby is a small, active article of excitement. Its business in the world is to keep its mother and father hopping sideways. It can do this better than almost anything else extant, with the possible exception of the doctor bill.
The largest thing about the baby is its appetite. Which it exercises several dozen times a day. You'd think they'd wear out. But they don't. No. But they wear out everything else around the place, including mother's disposition.
The baby is not an absolute necessity. But it is customary.
The great trouble with babies, though, is that they won't stay babies. They grow rapidly in all directions. They accumulate, shed, and reaccumulate and shed flocks of hair and sets of clothes and teeth promiscuously.
Withal, babies are a great institution.

THESE MEN HOLD AMERICA'S SECOND LINE OF DEFENSE

Major-Gen. Leonard Wood (left), Major-Gen. Tasker Bliss (top center), Major-Gen. Hugh L. Scott (right) and Major-Gen. J. J. Pershing.

EVERYDAY ETIQUETTE

(Miss Hoyt will answer personally all letters pertaining to matters of etiquette addressed to her in care of this paper, if accompanied by a two cent stamp.)

Serve the hostess first. This will help a guest who may not be familiar with a new dish which is served.
D. L. Yes; a gentleman may use perfume if he uses an excellent quality, and very little of it. A good Cologne is usually preferred by men of discrimination. Even women should use perfume sparingly; and none at all is preferable to anything but the best. For a woman, a sachet powder, which gives a delicate and lasting fragrance to all her clothing, is perhaps the most pleasing of perfumes.
Auntie. You are right; a child should not be entirely ignored. Nevertheless, it is very bad for him to hear his claims and sayings made the subject of conversation among his elders. He will soon become too assertive to be endurable. Fond relatives often bore their visitors with tales of childish astuteness, when more interesting and appropriate topics might be discussed.

Tomorrow and Monday the Last Two Days of Our Month End Sale

Charming Tailored Suits For Women and Misses

at greatly reduced prices.

50 of Them In This Lot at $27.25

Don't miss seeing them if you are considering a new suit at all as you will like them and appreciate the big saving.

THE GOLDEN EAGLE

LEVY'S

Honest Advertising Wins

YOU HAVE JUST TWO DAYS MORE TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE MANY BARGAINS THAT ARE BEING OFFERED DURING OUR MONTH-END SALE. AVAIL YOURSELVES OF THIS GREAT PRICE CONCESSION OPPORTUNITY IF YOU HAVE NOT ALREADY DONE SO. THAT HONEST ADVERTISING PAYS IS PROVEN AGAIN BY THE SUCCESS OF THIS AS WELL AS ALL OUR PAST SALES.

Tomorrow, Saturday, Another One Of Our Big $1.00 Waist Days

You know what this means, one continuous rush from morning till night.

Our $1.00 Waists have become so famous in Janesville that all we have to do is to say the word and the rush is on.

Women's Handsome Dresses Including Values Up to $24.50 at $16.65

Every one of these garments are stylishly cut in the latest of fashion. The excellent quality of Taffeta Silk and Crepe de Chine you will find to be equally as good as you could find in dresses selling at a third more. All the desirable colors and sizes you will find in this assortment.

Women's and Misses' Taffeta Coats at $13.65

Worth at least a third more than the price we have quoted. There is nothing out this season that will be more popular in the coat line than Black and Navy Taffeta Silks. The high belted styles make them particularly attractive. The sizes are 36, 38, 40, 42.

Interesting Items Selected Here and There From Our Waist Department

50 Crepe De Chine Waists, values to $4.50, month-end sale, special.....$3.45
50 Sport Blouses in Tub Silk with plain and fancy stripe collar, values to $4.50, at.....$3.39
Handsome Georgette Crepe Waists, values to $7.50, month end sale.....$5.85

Middy Blouses, belted and straight effects, fancy collar and cuffs, material excellent, regular $1.50 value, special.....$1.10
50 Tub Silk Blouses, high or low collar effect, $2.75 value, at.....$2.39
Wonderful assortment $1.00 Waists always on hand.

100 WASH SKIRTS, plain and fancy white piques, in nifty styles, regular $1.50 values, at $1.29. All sizes.

Tub Silk Sport Coats, Very Special, $5.69

Another Large Shipment of New Stock Collars, Jabot Effects, 59c regular 65c values at

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR SPECIALS

GOWNS, ENVELOPE COMBINATIONS AND PETTICOATS.

1 lot Gowns, Envelope Combination, $1.25 value.....95c
1 lot Gowns, Envelope and Petticoat, $1.50 value.....$1.39
1 lot Gowns, Envelope and Petticoat, $1.75 value.....$1.63
1 lot Gowns, Envelope and Petticoat, $2.00 value.....$1.73

1 lot Gowns, Envelope and Petticoat, $2.50 value.....$2.23
1 lot Gowns, Envelope and Petticoat, $3.00 value.....$2.69
1 lot Gowns, Envelope and Petticoat, $3.50 value.....$3.15

All our undermuslin you will find the materials the best and attractively trimmed with dainty lace and embroidery.

House Dress and Apron Month End Specials

10 doz. House Dresses, made of excellent quality of Gingham and Percale Checks and neat stripes, $1.25 values, at.....95c
10 doz. House Dresses, Percale and Gingham, $1.50 value, at.....$1.39
25 doz. Bungalow Aprons, light and dark percales, made in good styles, very special, each.....48c

5 doz. 2 piece Breakfast Sets, made of excellent quality light and dark percales, very special.....95c
Children's Dresses marked down to.....95c, $1.19, $1.39, $1.69
Many other bargains not listed you will find attractively displayed on tables and counters for your convenience.

Heart and Home Problems

LETTERS MAY BE ADDRESSED TO MRS. THOMPSON, IN CARE OF THE GAZETTE

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) If a young lady has a friend who lives at a distance, should he ask to come? As she lives in the country he would have to stay at her home. She is fifteen years old.

(2) If a young man who tells her he loves her?

(3) If a young man who knows his friend has had her photograph taken, would it be proper for her to send him one without his asking for it?

(4) If a young man who is proper for a girl to eat supper with one boy at a party and then go home with another boy if the first boy does not ask to see her home?

(5) It would be all right for her to say that she would like to have him come to see her sometime, but she should let him know if she does not love him to come. He can find some place to stay even if she does live in the country. It would be better to let him stay over which is the nearest town than at her home.

(6) A girl should make the natural response in such a case. Her instincts, if she follows them, will tell her the right thing to do and she will not regret it. If the girl does not love the man she should make the fact known to him and not encourage him to think she does care.

(7) No, she should not give him her photograph.

(8) Yes.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: My boyfriend joined the United States navy and I am lonesome since he went away.

(1) Would it be proper for me to go with other boys? I promised him I would not.

(2) He is seventeen and so am I. Do you think we are too young to go with other boys for one another?

(3) He will be gone four years. Shall I write to him or not, if he writes first?

YOUR NEW FRIEND.

(1) You should not have made the promise. I think you better write to him right away and say that you must be released from your promise. A girl of your age should not limit herself to one boy friend.

(2) You are not too young to really care for each other, but you are much too young to know whether you will care for each other permanently. The chances are that you will not.

(3) In your case it will be all right to write first to ask him to release you from your promise. Then if he cares to correspond it will be all right to do so.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am very much in love with a girl in my city. I cannot help it. I go to see her twice a week and I never have failed to present her with a gift. In spite of all my affection she seems to care nothing for me. Please advise me as to how I can gain her love. Her parents seem to think well of me.

It is human nature to love the things in life that we have to strive hardest to get. The girl is too sure of you and so her affection very naturally reaches out to someone who does not want her as much as you do. You make a mistake by going to see her even twice a week and by taking too many gifts. Keep her guessing for a while, and see if she does not like you better. I am willing to wager that if you did not go to see her for two or three weeks she would seek you out. You have at least shown her how much you care for her the next time you asked to call. Anyway, the experiment is worth trying. Without any explanation to the girl stop going to see her for a while, and when you go back to her again don't give any explanation for your neglect except that you have been busy. Call only once a week in the future and don't have a regular night. Let her wonder when you are coming. Take her somewhere frequently. A girl gets tired of everything, man even if he does take her gifts. She wants him to take her to the theater and places like that.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: When a couple is engaged, while walking, which is more correct, for the lady to take the gentleman's arm or for the gentleman to take the lady's arm?

As a rule, nowadays, the man takes the lady's arm.

SIDE TALKS

—BY— RUTH CAMERON

Is there anything in the world more marvelous than our sense of the reality of people in books and the hold they sometimes get on our affections, or the opposite?

Don't you occasionally catch yourself wondering who among your friends said such and such a thing, and then remember that it was some body in a book?

She Never Even Comes Into The Book.

It is especially wonderful to me to find how slight a character can be in this reality to us. In one of Margaret Deland's latest books there is a "Kate" who does not actually appear in the story at all. One of the characters has been in love with her ten years before the book opens. She is referred to occasionally by him and by the other people in the book. That is all. And yet I had a very clear idea of what Kate looked like and such a powerful sense of her existence that I found myself wondering as I finished a chapter what she thought of the things that had happened in it.

When The Door Is Shut In One's Face, I have really suffered positive home-sickness some times when I find a good book down for the last time and know that the door had been shut—however gently—in my face and that I couldn't know what happened to those dear friends of mine, what further adventures befell them, whether they were happy though married.

"The Newcomers" is one such book. "Little Women" is another. All books for which the public have insistently (and usually with unsatisfactory results) called for a serial, are such books.

Did you ever know, by the way, a serial that was superior, or even equal, to the original book? Compare "The Newcomers" and "Little Women" and "Sentimental Tommy" and "Tommy and Grizel."

The Semi-Serial The Only Good Serial.

To my mind there is only one class of serial that is an artistic success and that is the semi-serial in which the characters that were the central figures in the first book appear as background characters in the second. Take for instance Margaret Deland's "Awakening of Helena" and its semi-serial "The Iron Woman" and "The Iron Woman."

Really, when you stop to think of it, of all the faculties of enjoyment and interest that have been given us we could least spare the strange power to lose ourselves in the lives of these people who never existed. Other friends may be too busy for us, may forget us or turn against us. These friends never will fail us.

The Business of Living

Douglas and Eleanor Make Plans for a Happy but Inexpensive Christmas

"Of course we will have a Christmas dinner, and have Patty here. No Christmas without her. But that will be the first year," Eleanor and her husband were talking finances over one evening not long before the Holidays.

"Of course we are old enough to realize the strain we have been under financially as well as every other way with the baby's sickness and shut out from presents. But the children I hate to disappoint. That was the Douglas had always made a great deal of Christmas in his life."

"Oh, I don't mean we shall not get them anything, but let us get some inexpensive toy for each. We can have some home-made gifts."

"That's easy," Douglas stretched out his legs before the fire and thrust his hands in his pockets. "I have a good one for you," Eleanor nodded her approval.

"I am going to get Jack interested in making a miniature for Margaret like that my brothers made for me when I was a girl. I had a dear little cradle and quite an outfit of doll furniture. That did not have everything done for them. They made most of the playthings. They had and it encouraged ingenuity. The manual training in school ought to help him in that," remarked Douglas.

"There was not much skill displayed except in the making of the cradle; that was a fine piece of work. They took a thin cross section of a branch of a cherry tree for the top of a table and nailed it over a smaller lath or a pedestal, and a table. My couch was an oblong block of wood with a back nailed on and all comfortably upholstered. The chairs were made from short lengths of cherry branch. A notch was sawed in for a seat and the back was dug out into a curve and it was tied with creosote to match the couch.

"Good, he will have lots of fun making an outfit like that," Douglas was silent for a time then said: "Did you save that map of Europe showing the countries grouped in three divisions, allies, central powers and neutrals? It came with the 'Sunday paper'."

"I will paste that on a stiff cardboard and then cut it up into a puzzle. It will interest him in geography and history both."

"Good work! Who says we are not going to have a Merry Christmas?" Eleanor rose and went over to the window.

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

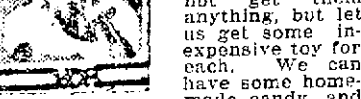

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

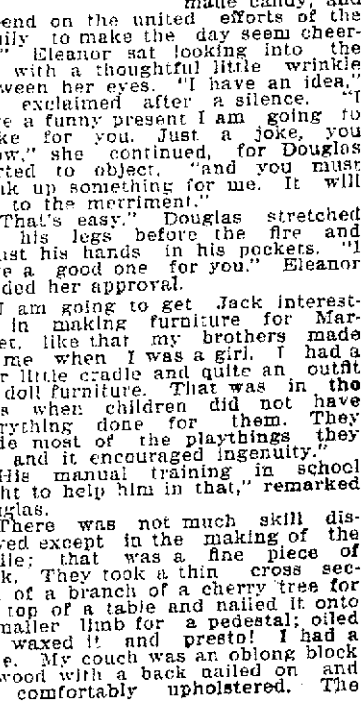

depend on the united efforts of the family to make the day seem cheerful. Eleanor sat looking into the fire with a thoughtful little wrinkle between her eyes. "I have an idea," she exclaimed after a silence. "I have a funny present I am going to make for you. Just a 'Joey' you know," she continued, "and Douglas started to object, 'and you must think up something for me. It will add to the merriment.'"

"That's easy," Douglas stretched out his legs before the fire and thrust his hands in his pockets. "I have a good one for you," Eleanor nodded her approval.

"I am going to get Jack interested in making a miniature for Margaret like that my brothers made for me when I was a girl. I had a dear little cradle and quite an outfit of doll furniture. That did not have everything done for them. They made most of the playthings. They had and it encouraged ingenuity. The manual training in school ought to help him in that," remarked Douglas.

"There was not much skill displayed except in the making of the cradle; that was a fine piece of work. They took a thin cross section of a branch of a cherry tree for the top of a table and nailed it over a smaller lath or a pedestal, and a table. My couch was an oblong block of wood with a back nailed on and all comfortably upholstered. The chairs were made from short lengths of cherry branch. A notch was sawed in for a seat and the back was dug out into a curve and it was tied with creosote to match the couch.

"Good, he will have lots of fun making an outfit like that," Douglas was silent for a time then said: "Did you save that map of Europe showing the countries grouped in three divisions, allies, central powers and neutrals? It came with the 'Sunday paper'."

"I will paste that on a stiff cardboard and then cut it up into a puzzle. It will interest him in geography and history both."

"Good work! Who says we are not going to have a Merry Christmas?" Eleanor rose and went over to the window.

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

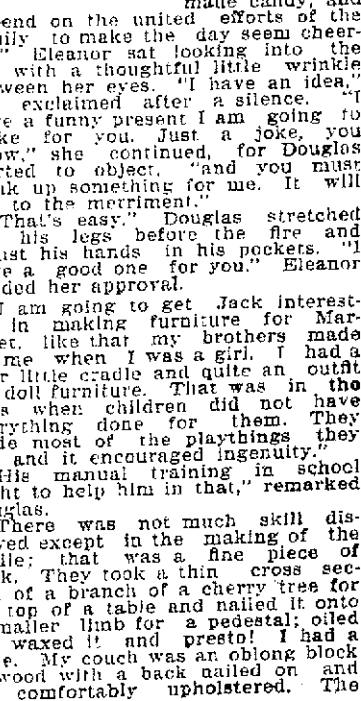

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

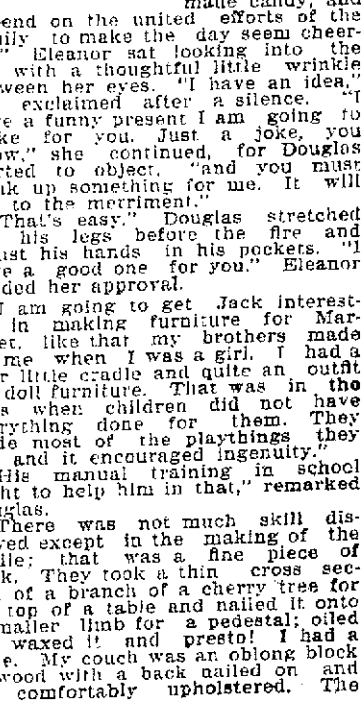

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

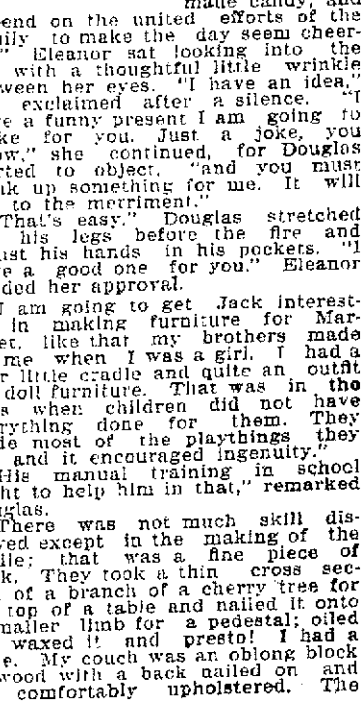

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

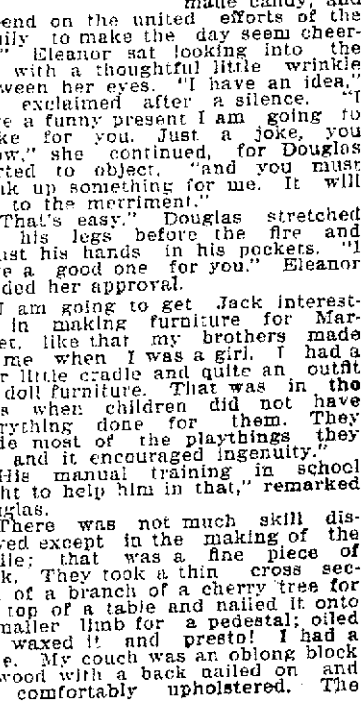

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

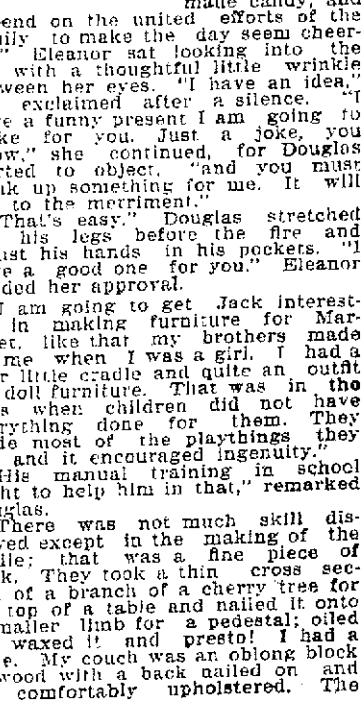

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

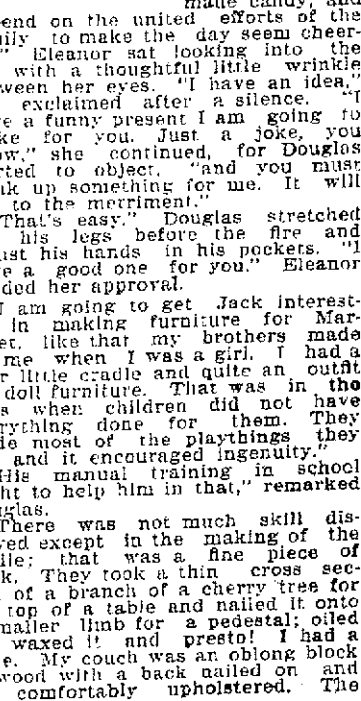

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

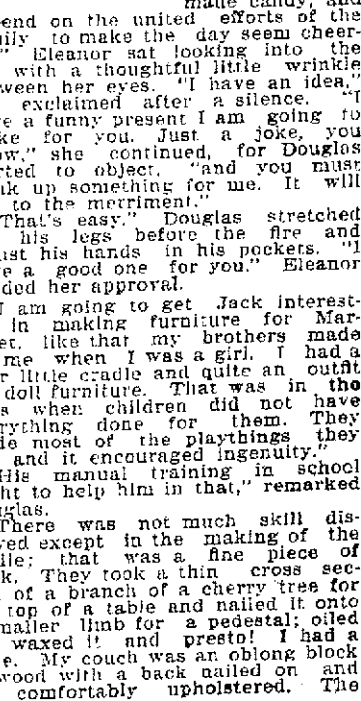

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

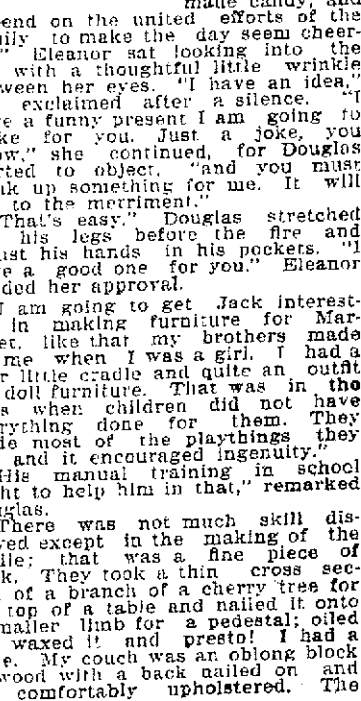

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

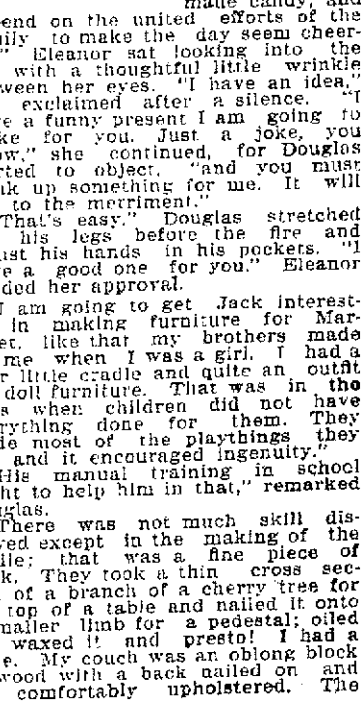

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

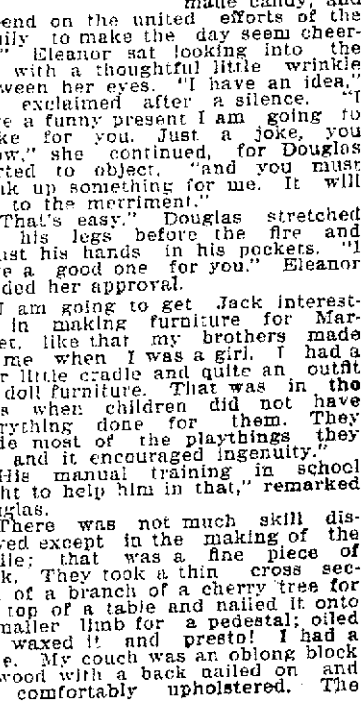

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

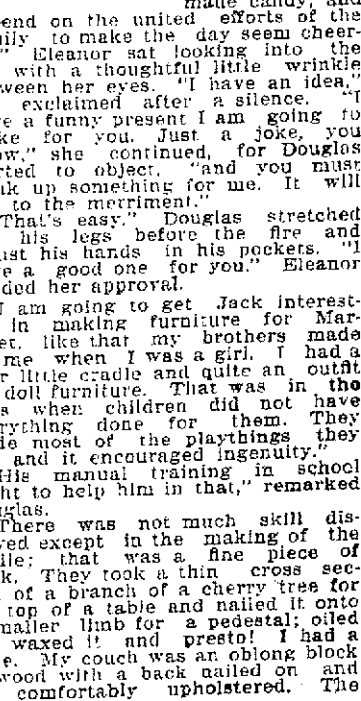

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

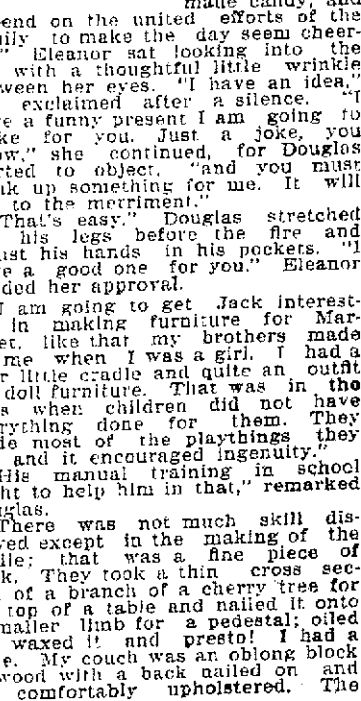

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

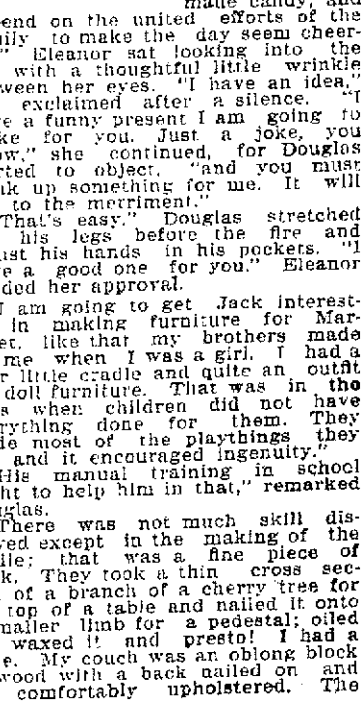

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

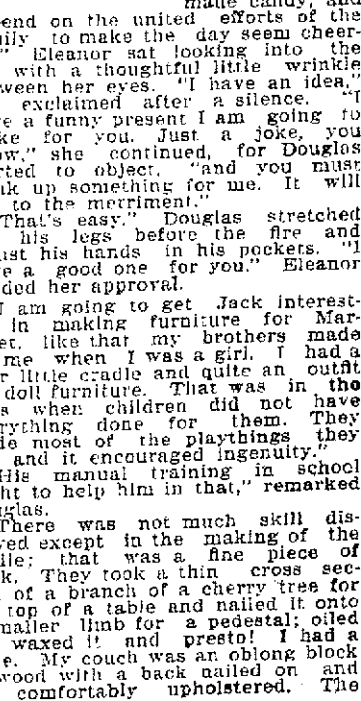

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

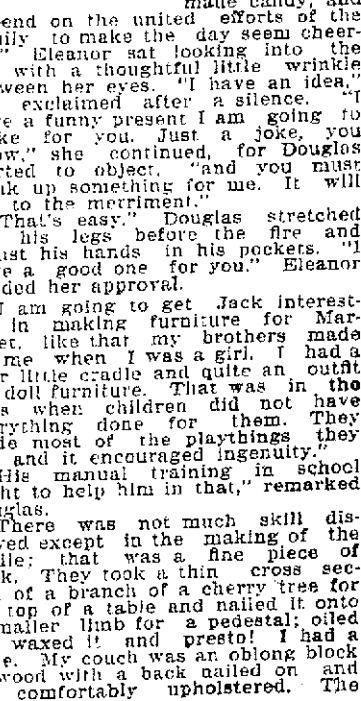

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

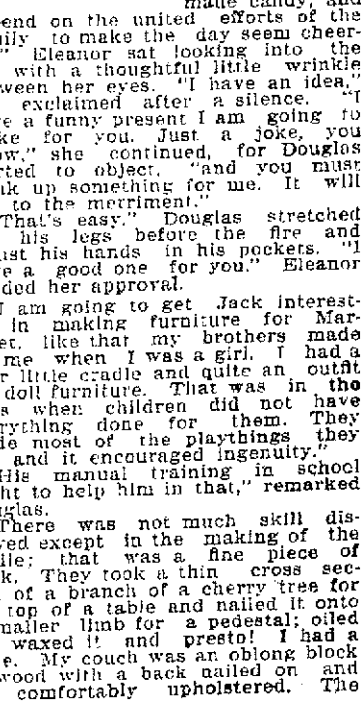

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

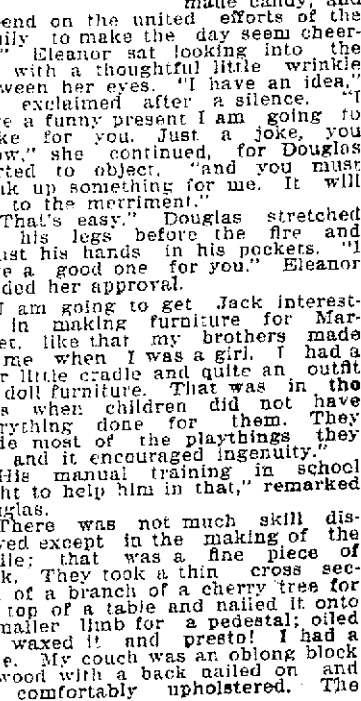

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

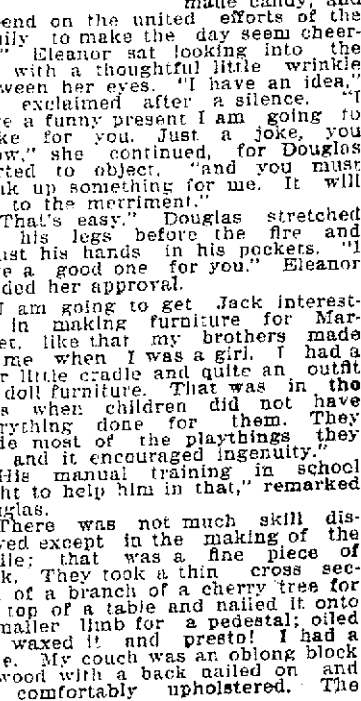

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

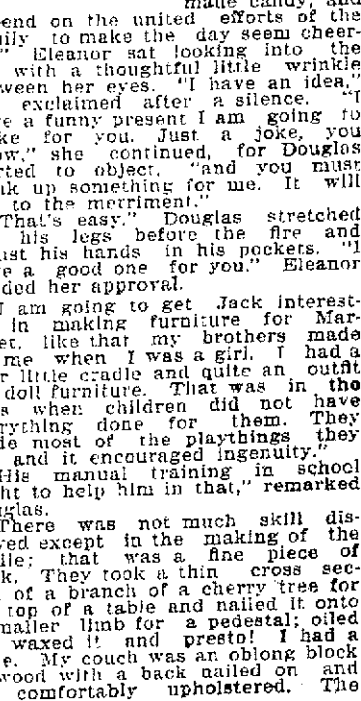

"Oh, course Patty will do something for the kiddies. She always does."

"I wish she would not," objected Eleanor, "after paying for that nurse. We are all so happy to be an unbroken band that we do not need presents to make the glad."

"When I feel my darling baby in my arms I realize that my heart is as full of happiness as it will hold. With my arms around her husband's neck she rested her cheek against his hair."

"We surely have a happy home even if I can't make big money," this was a sensitive spot for Douglas, that other men had so far passed him in the race, and that his family could not have the comforts he would like to give them.

"We are all right. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. We have a goodly heritage," murmured Eleanor. (To be continued.)

and sat on the big arm of her husband's chair.

"Oh, course Patty will do

SOCIALIST'S EXPULSION ORDERED BY SENATE

(Continued from page 1.)

Senator consisted of Senators Wilcox, Bayfield, Bray, Oakshott, Mulvihill, Waterhouse, Wilcox, Mulvihill, and many others. The senate then recessed until the committee prepared the resolution.

On the reading of the resolution, the senate adjourned.

Senator Raguse secured the floor.

He called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

He then called to order.

TUMULTY GETS SEEDS; WILSON'S SPADE MAY START NATION IN FOOD CAMPAIGN

Miss Lillian Cromlein presenting Secretary Tumulty with seeds for the White House garden.

Acting for the National Emergency Food Garden Commission, Miss Lillian Cromlein recently presented Secretary Tumulty, acting for the White House executive force, with $100 worth of seeds. These will be planted on the half-acre lot opposite the White House, and President Wilson is expected to take the lead in the national food campaign by breaking the ground.

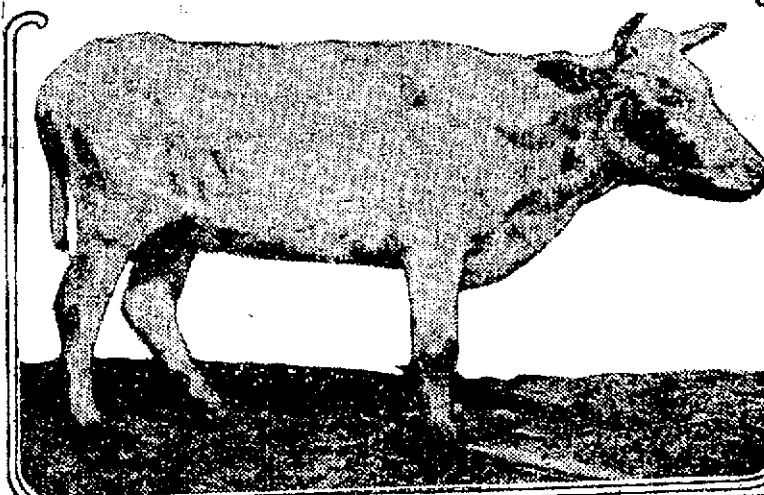

SAFE FARMING

FARM LOSSES THAT CAN BE PREVENTED

By P. G. HOLDEN.

THE PRINCIPLES of good business applied in manufacturing or commercial pursuits apply also in the business of farming. The average annual loss on the farms of the United States is about 30 per cent of the gross income.

The principal sources of this loss are as follows: Failure to test seed corn, more than $100,000,000; improper harvesting and storing of seed corn, millions of dollars in yield and quality; planting of imported seed corn, cannot be estimated; ravages of corn root worm, more than $100,000,000; waste of cornstalks in field instead of being put in silo, at least $500,000,000; failure to treat small grains for smut, fully $300,000,000; waste of manure through careless handling, $100,000,000; weeds, fully $300,000,000; hog cholera, over $65,000,000; Texas fever cattle tick, nearly $500,000,000; "scrub" dairy cows, fully $745,000,000; depreciation of farm machinery, $100,000,000.

Some Unnecessary Losses—The Scrub Cow, Neglected Tools, Wasted Manure.

Shinny and tools from failure to house or care for them, impossible to estimate; soil erosion resulting from one-crop system of agriculture, many millions.

Easy to Prevent Losses.

It is an easy matter to harvest seed corn at the right time and to store it where it will be protected from the weather. It costs about 10 cents to test enough seed corn to plant an acre, so why not test it? The corn root worm can be easily starved out by crop rotation and corn stalks can be converted into the best of succulent feed by placing them in the silo.

The treatment of small grain for smut with formaldehyde requires but little time and costs but 1 cent a bushel; and the proper use and care of manure is met by the use of the manure spreader.

Kill the weeds with profitable crops. Hog cholera can be prevented. The dipping vat will eradicate the Texas fever cattle tick. The milk scales, the Babcock test and the feed and milk record will do away with the "boarder" cow.

BADGER ENGINEERS LIABLE FOR SERVICE

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., April 27.—The United States government has asked the recently established Intercollegiate Bureau of the University of Wisconsin for information regarding all senior students, engineering and chemistry students. The university branch of this bureau has two thousand names of persons who have enlisted in the military service. The number includes graduates as well as students.

The purpose of the bureau, established in February of this year, and representing ninety-seven colleges and universities in the country, is to prepare the government with names of alumni and students of the various professions who will give their services when called upon. The government at the present time is desirous of securing this information and has requested the Wisconsin branch to send their names and references. The signing of the reference blanks does not bind the student or faculty member to serve but merely gives the government the desired information.

At this time," said Mrs. Crane today. "For it means race suicide among potatoes."

FRAILTY OR FIDELITY?

By ELSIE SEE.

Abigail Thomas was seated in the visitor's gallery of the state senate one morning, and in her smartly tailored black silk suit and a flowered hat her fair beauty was even more pronounced than usual. The senate was discussing a bill for the control of public utilities by city governments, and Abigail's father had just concluded a speech in its favor.

While the interest was at its height, the heavy swinging doors of the senate chamber opened slowly and there entered a pale, sad-faced young woman who looked at the strange scene about her in a confused way.

As the woman slowly approached the brass rail which formed a semicircle dividing the senatorial desks from the seat section for visitors, Abigail Thomas recognized her as Mamie Morton, who, as Mamie Ellis, had been her classmate in grammar school. Only a day or two before, Senator Thomas had spoken of the efforts Mamie was making to have her husband pardoned from state prison, and when Abigail saw her standing there she felt a desire to help her.

Perhaps the desire was made stronger because Abigail was beginning to feel remorseful about a quarrel she had had with Stanley Worth the night before. Stanley Worth was governor of the state and a suitor for Abigail's hand. After proposing to her four times in three months and being given a different reason each time for her refusal, he had told her that although he honestly loved her he would not longer furnish her opportunities for indulging her capriciousness.

Abigail's estimation of him went up many points upon this show of spirit, but a moment later it was consumed in the heat of her wrath, as he gave a semitragic quotation of "Frailty, thy name is woman." So the quarrel continued until Abigail said to herself that she would make him suffer for that contemptuous slander of her sex.

Mamie Morton approached the sergeant at arms and told him she must speak to Senator Thomas.

"I cannot promise that the governor has taken any action," said Senator Thomas in answer to her eager question. "Many matters of state claim his attention at this time, and he may not have had time to look into this."

"But sir," protested the woman, becoming bolder in her suspense. "It has been a whole week since the petitions from our citizens and the judge and jury who tried poor Henry were sent to his office. Henry is innocent, sir, and has already served a year in prison."

"I believe he is innocent," said the senator. "In spite of the circumstantial evidence indicating that he took the money from Jabe Ewing's cash drawer, I hope the governor will come to see it as I do. Come with me, and we will see what has been done."

"And let me go, too, won't you, dad?" asked Abigail, who surprised her father by joining them and greeting Mamie cordially.

When they reached the governor's suite of offices, Senator Thomas gave his card to a smiling secretary, who took it at once into the governor's private office and returned a moment later bidding the senator enter the gubernatorial presence. As they sat waiting, Mamie told Abigail how everything pointed to Henry's innocence.

As the door of the inner office opened, Mamie stopped talking and started from her seat as Senator Thomas entered, followed by the governor. The governor handed Mamie Morton a long folded paper bearing the state seal.

"I am happy to give you this paper, Mrs. Morton," he said kindly. "When you present it to the warden of the prison he will give freedom to your husband."

Sensor Thomas quickly guided Mamie to the door and out through the long corridors to the entrance of the building.

In the governor's office, Abigail turned and walked up to Stanley Worth in a way that made him wonder whether his good fortune was a dream. The smiling secretary had discreetly withdrawn to another room.

"Stanley, I came here partly to help that poor woman by being with her in her distress and partly to be present when you have to recognize that the name of one woman, at least, was not frailty. But do you know why I have remained?"

"No, I do not," he said, and his voice sounded queer and unnatural.

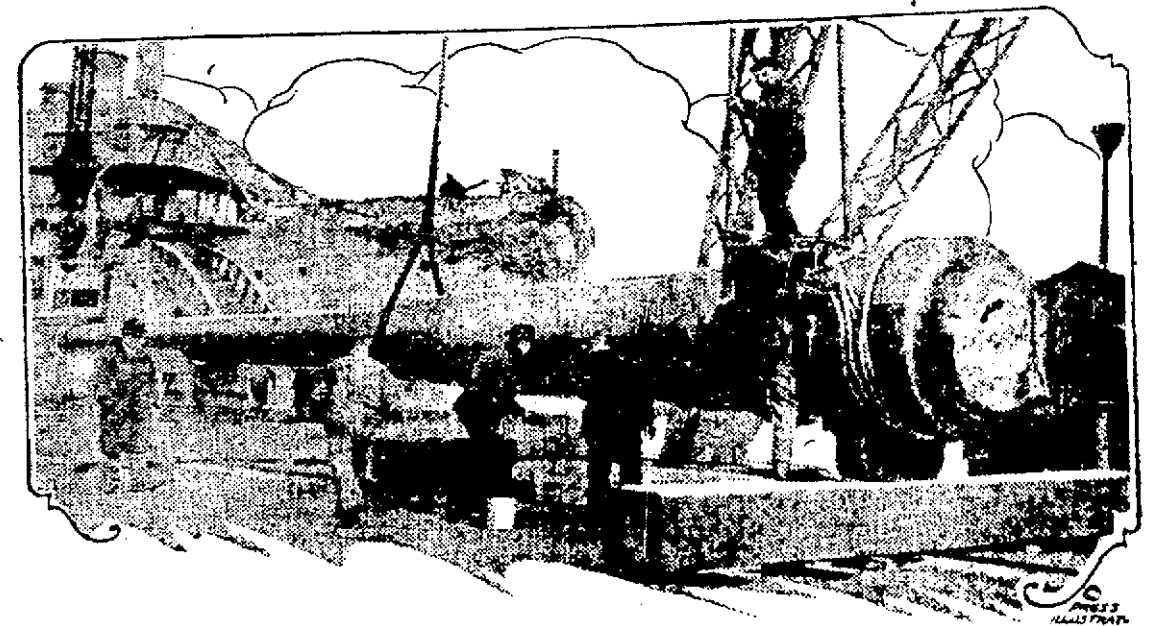

"I've remained to say that the fidelity shown by that woman has made me ashamed of what you called my frailty, and to say—" Abigail paused, and her lovely head went higher and her clear blue eyes looked fearlessly into Stanley Worth's gray ones. "That if you're determined not to propose to me again, then I'll take advantage of leap year and propose to you."

The blissful expression brought to the governor's face by this startling confession was partially dimmed the next instant by the shadow of Senator Thomas re-entering the doorway, but he managed to whisper a reply, and the senator wondered what on earth it could be that Abigail had been asking of the governor which brought from him an impassioned assurance that an official confirmation of his decision would be given her at the earliest possible opportunity. (Copyright, 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Michigan women are being asked to pledge themselves not to eat potatoes until after the spring crop is all in. The movement, sponsored by the Rev. Caroline Bartlett Crane, state chairman of Michigan women's committee for patriotic survey, also undertakes to obtain seed potatoes for farmers.

No one can afford to eat seed potatoes.

Read the want ads for bargains.

Hoisting fourteen-inch gun on United States superdreadnought. This photograph affords an excellent idea of the size of the huge guns on Uncle Sam's new superdreadnoughts. All United States warships, big and little, are rapidly being put into shape to meet anything that may challenge them anywhere on the high seas.

Visit Our Bargain Basement

Special Values In Suits,
Coats and Dresses

J.M. BOSTWICK & SONS.
JANESVILLE - - - WISCONSIN

Sweater Coats

The woman or miss who is fond of the outdoors will find many occasions to wear one of these dressy sweaters.

FIBRE SILK SWEATER COATS, pretty models in all the popular shades for sport wear, some rich effects that are dressy enough for most any occasion; come in beautiful color combinations, at $7.50 to $18.00

BRUSH WOOL AND SHETLAND WOOL SWEATER COATS; many pretty styles to select from in all the new color combinations; prices range from $7.50 to $15.00

Protect Your Furs and Winter Garments

Buy a Wayne Cedared Paper Wardrobe for suits, coats, dresses and furs. These positively protect garments from dust, soot, moisture, moths, insects, etc.; prices range from 75c to $1.50

KIMONOS

JAPANESE CREPE KIMONOS, hand embroidered in beautiful designs, fast colors, at $2.25 to $4.50

SERPENTINE CREPE KIMONOS, very pretty styles to choose from, splendid light and dark colorings at 1.50 to $4.50

SILK MULL KIMONOS in neat flowered effects, at $3.50 to $10.00

JAP SILK KIMONOS, beautiful hand embroidered designs at prices ranging from $12.50 to $15.00

Silk Petticoats

A Silk Petticoat is the indispensable accompaniment of every dress, whether for street, indoor wear, or the fashionable function.

FINE QUALITY TAFFETA SILK PETTICOATS in plain colors and rich changeable shades. Also Taffeta Silk Jersey Top Petticoats, a beautiful assortment to choose from at prices ranging from $5.00 to $13.00

Here Are a Few Specials From Our Bargain Basement

Get the habit of spending a few minutes in this department when in the store, it is well worth while.

COVERALL APRONS

We are showing a big assortment of Dress Aprons, Coverall style, light and dark colors, made of standard percale, some button back style with wide belt, neck and cuffs trimmed. We also show Empire or Elastic Waist style, some of fancy figured percale, others in plain blue and pink, rick rack and braid trimmed, all sizes, at 89c, 69c, 75c and 89c

WOMEN'S TWO-PIECE BREAK-FAST SETS.

Breakfast Sets, consisting of Jacket and Skirts made of good quality percale, in plain blue and pink, also stripe and polka dots, good assortment of styles to select from, at only $1.25

PETTICOATS, VERY SPECIAL

WOMEN'S BLACK SATEN PETTI-

COATS, made with deep flounce, all sizes and very special values, at 59c

FANCY FIGURED PETTICOATS, also plain black saten, extra quality, very special at 89c and 98c

CHEMISE AT ONLY 59c

We have on sale one lot of Chemise made of good quality Nainsook, trimmed in embroidery and lace, very special 59c

PETTICOATS made of good quality material, trimmed in embroidery and lace, good assortment to choose from, at 59c, 89c and 98c

BOYS' ROMPERS AND BLOOMERS.

Boys' Rompers in chambray, gingham and percale, all sizes, at 59c

Boys' and Girls' Overalls, of gingham and percale, at 50c

Black Saten Bloomers, good quality, at 59c

PETEY DINK—IF ANYTHING HAPPENS THEY'LL KEEP IT QUIET.

SPORTS

PENN'S BIG GAMES TODAY DESPITE WAR

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.) Philadelphia, April 27.—Missouri university, since the withdrawal of Harvard, Cornell and Michigan universities, is favored to carry away the relay honors in the annual Penn relay game which begins here today. With Simpson leading the list of athletes from the western university, this college probably will stand high in the point score, also.

In spite of the fact that war is causing many colleges and universities to abandon their athletic training this spring, the greatest entry list of all times, 200 names, has been received by the university.

Earl Thomson, famous Dartmouth all-around star, is entered in the pentathlon and is expected to furnish the greatest opposition to Howard Berry, star of the University of Pennsylvania.

Authorities here have promised to turn the most into a magnificent patriotic demonstration, absolutely refusing to entertain the possibility of calling off the established classic of college outdoor athletics.

The move may prove to many schools the convincing argument that preparation by discontinuance of athletics is the wrong kind of preparation.

Standings Now and After Today's Games

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

W.	L.	Pct.	Win. Loss
White Sox...	4	.692	714 343
Boston...	4	.633	597 353
New York...	6	.400	436 544
Cleveland...	7	.338	371 540
St. Louis...	5	.485	390 417
Philadelphia...	4	.417	382 355
Washington...	4	.364	317 333
Detroit...	8	.273	333 359

Results Yesterday.
Cleveland at White Sox 4-1.
All other games postponed.
Games Today.
Cleveland at Chicago.
St. Louis at Detroit.
Philadelphia at New York.
Washington at Boston.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

W.	L.	Pct.	Win. Loss
New York...	8	.500	818 727
St. Louis...	9	.463	687 690
Boston...	5	.558	600 569
Cubs...	7	.533	593 590
Cincinnati...	8	.471	529 571
Brooklyn...	6	.432	480 500
Pittsburgh...	5	.383	375 512
Philadelphia...	7	.300	354 373

Results Yesterday.
Cincinnati 6, Cubs 4.
Philadelphia-New York, rain.
Boston-Brooklyn, rain.
Games Today.
Chicago at St. Louis.
Boston at Philadelphia.
New York at Pittsburgh.
Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.

After years of listening to what ball players think of their decisions a regiment of umpires should be in previous to all gas attacks.

FINAL LIMITATION PUT ON ATHLETICS

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.) Madison, Wis., April 27.—Athletes at the University of Wisconsin received the final limitation today at a meeting of the board of regents and alumni of the school. It was decided to stop all spring athletics but to encourage inter-mural athletics as much as possible. As a result of this action spring football, baseball and track sports will not be on the sport calendar. These sports will not be resumed until the close of the war.

The action in favor of inter-mural athletics was very unexpected because most of the contests which were to have been held during the past three weeks were called off due to the lack of interest. A student committee with Eber Simpson as chairman was appointed to arouse enthusiasm and finish the inter-college and inter-class schedules. As a reward for the college winning the most contests the Nelson trophy will again be awarded.

The spirit of the meeting was that instead of having athletic heroes at Camp Randall, putting the shot of running record books there should be heroes slandering the market on the baseball and football fields of Camp Randall. The interest of military drill must be paramount, said the speaker and his opinion voiced the sentiment of the whole meeting and the entire student body.

West Side Alleys

Miss Nolan's team finished first in a contest between three teams of women bowlers at the west side alleys last evening. Miss Broderick again on the prize for high score with a total of 145. Following are the scores:

W.	L.	Pct.	Win. Loss
Nolan...	115	106	91 139
Smith...	72	106	94 91
Little...	117	113	111
Kelly...	129	61	102 133

Total—1702.
Miss Dillon's Team.
M. Dillon...108 90 190 105
C. Cassidy...103 103 116 111
K. Broderick...123 91 143 101
Mrs. Daley...112 92 30 96

Total—1675.
Miss Zimmerman's Team.
M. Zimmerman...119 118 107
Mrs. Palmerman...81 55 80 101
M. Donahue...129 95 110 91
Mrs. Flaherty...16 49 18 99

Total—1677.
Perhaps the most disastrous move that the Tigers ever did was to turn over Pipp and High to the Yankees at the time that Houston and Kuppert bought the club. It will be recalled that the new owners of the team were not satisfied with the material and asked that the team be strengthened. Believing every one would help Navin tossed in Pipp and High for a very reasonable sum.

New York fans are more than delighted with the fighting spirit shown by the Yankees. Donovan's men got away to a slow start, but then came with a rush. They are playing good, smart, aggressive baseball and never are beaten until the last man is out.

Clark Griffith is determined to make an outfielder out of Rice, formerly a pitcher. He may succeed if the boy does not first get killed by a fly ball. Fine ducking saved him from being hit in the dome the other day, but the leather bounced off his chest and went for a two-base hit.

Sport Snap Shots

The ease with which the Yankees and Red Sox scored runs on the squeeze play during the first two weeks of the season shows what a tough job it is to stop this play if the man at bat is a capable batter. Unless the pitcher or catcher can force the play is to be attempted there is practically no defense against it if the batter taps the ball anywhere on the ground.

McGraw does not like the play and rarely uses it. If the catcher calls for a pitch out he can of course make the man coming in look bad. He is caught half way down the base line and is an easy victim. McGraw figures if the play goes wrong he sacrifices a man at third, who might be brought in with a hit or sacrifice fly.

The Yanks, however, met their big success with it by the daring way they used it, especially against Johnson. They practically beat Johnson in two games by this play. Johnson is not the easiest man to bunt against, but with all his speed he could not check the play even when it was right in front of him.

In a recent tenning game, with the bases full in the tenth inning, Johnson bunted the ball direct to Johnson. Walter did not have to move a step for it, and fielded it as quickly as could be possible. But the time he got the ball the short distance home, Miller, who had started home with his wind-up, was over the plate. This individual play shows how effective this play is against perfect defense.

Both the Athletics champions of 1910, 1911, 1912 and 1914, and the Red Sox world's champions of the last two years, have found this play close games, but no team ever used it as consistently as the Yankees in the last week. Donovan said on almost every day he got a man on third and the pretty part of it was that it always worked.

The poor work of the Detroit club since the start of the season has been a sad blow to Hugh Jennings, but even sadder to Detroit fandom. The fans felt it would be a Tiger year and the biggest crowd in Detroit's baseball history is being opened in the south against the Giants, breaking even with McGraw's crack team in eight games, although the out of the services of Cobb, Jennings' trouble again is pitchers. He also misses the services of Vint at third base. Oscar was no Baker, but he was a great defense player and a really high class lead-off man.

Pipp last year drove in more runs than any man in either league. In both 1915 and 1916 Detroit lost the pennant by less than three games. Even with Detroit's pitching can any one imagine a better combination than Pipp and High? And Wallie threatens to exceed anything he ever has done this season.

New York fans are more than delighted with the fighting spirit shown by the Yankees. Donovan's men got away to a slow start, but then came with a rush. They are playing good, smart, aggressive baseball and never are beaten until the last man is out.

Clark Griffith is determined to make an outfielder out of Rice, formerly a pitcher. He may succeed if the boy does not first get killed by a fly ball. Fine ducking saved him from being hit in the dome the other day, but the leather bounced off his chest and went for a two-base hit.

EAST SIDERS NOW LEAD IN CITY BOWLING CONTEST

W.	L.	Pct.	Win. Loss
Cunningham...	184	193	170
Ward...	201	134	127
Robbins...	204	163	161
Little...	173	191	158
Ryan...	158	212	170

929 908 826—2654
East Side.
Morris...192 182 212
Kempner...155 146 160
Newman...152 192 168
Dickerson...213 174 209
Merrick...155 189 172

878 889 929—2681
CITY BOWLERS IN TIE; WEST SIDE WINS AGAIN

West Side bowlers evened up matters for the week's play in the ten game series with the East Side bowlers, when the west side bowlers posed out a sixty-five pin victory, 2,470 pins to 2,405. Scores:

W.	L.	Pct.	Win. Loss
Morris...	171	192	161
Robbins...	150	152	143
Higgins...	146	135	190
Merrick...	153	173	183
Dickerson...	123	141	180

749 799 857—2405
West Side.
Cunningham...171 201 197
Daley...170 168 152
Little...125 168 197
Neighbors...156 196 140
Ryan...145 161 217

767 890 812—2470
AN AMERICAN TAKEN AS PRISONER OF WAR IS REPORT.

(By Associated Press.) London, April 26.—The taking of the first American prisoner of war was reported to the American embassy today through the American consul at Glasgow.

Game Fishing

By DIXIE CARROLL
Author of Lake and Stream Game Fishing

JUST ORDINARY OL' PICKEREL.

My Dear Buck:

If there is one of the fish family that we remember from the knee-pants and bent-pin stage of the fishing game, it sure must be Ol' Judge Pickel and the young "pickers." It certainly made your heart do a double-quick and started the cold creeps up your spine, the first time you hooked a pickerel, after a kindergarten course on chubs and sunnies. You probably had a long cane pole or a young sapling cut from the nearby wooded shore; anyway, from that time on you realized that there was "some sport" to the game. Since then, of course, the ol' pickerel has been sorta dropped into the discard, and it takes trout, bass or muskie, perhaps, to start the joy trips up along your vertebrae. But let me tip you off straight, Buck, there's many a good fighter left in the pickerel outfit, regardless of the many slurs cast upon his fighting qualities by some of the ultra-exclusive high-brows in the angling derby.

Find Pickerel Most Anywhere.

The pickerel is one of the fish that you can fish for nearly anywhere, and you don't have to make a five hundred to one thousand mile trip to his "home grounds." He is a common, ordinary cuss that can pick up a living on next to nothing, and at the same time raise a mighty big family. In nearby "civilized" waters he will even make a sure-enough professional fisherman sit up and take notice at his ability to evade the bait and make said fisherman use all his skill and wits to induce him to take the lure. The more he is fished for the wiser he gets, and to land a few fair-sized pickerel in much-fished waters takes keen work, more so than for the gamer fish in the usual fish haunts of the North woods. As a rule the pickerel found in local waters does not grow to excess size, say an average of two or three pounds. Some are larger, of course, but not the general run.

Where the Pickerel Hangs Out.

The pickerel from the running streams, like all other fish, puts up the best fight, while those from the warmer waters of the lakes and sluggish streams are dull and slow fighters. The pickerel is found in nearly all rivers and lakes or ponds, his preference being for shallow, grassy lakes. His main hunting grounds are along the edge of lily and weed beds and on the outskirts of the grassy growth that is often called "pickerel grass." Here he lurks, waiting for the smaller fish to swim past, often striking his prey with a snap of the jaws that cuts the victim in twain. He is a sure-enough barbarian, and is a destroyer of the weaker fishes, all of which points to the fact that he will be with us for many a day. He is vicious to the core, and at times will strike a trolling spoon with force enough to bend it double. In spring-fed lakes he is often found around the spring-holes, and deep fishing here will bring him out. You can feel reasonably sure of landing him any time from the first of the season to the windup, and then take a rap at him through the ice in winter.

Needs Dentist in August.

August is about the poorest month for pickerel fishing, caused, no doubt, by the soreness of the gums, as claimed by many of the old-timers. The "muskie," a cousin of the pickerel, loses his teeth in August, while the pickerel itself has a swelling of the gums during dogdays that does not put him in a humor to bite on anything. Late September and early October is about the best all-round pickerel season, at which time he is found in the shallows, at the mouth of outlets or inlets, where the feed is good. Troll and Cast for Him.

Although trolling is the surest method of landing the pickerel, much sport can be had by casting for him, using light bass tackle. A weedless hook with a small frog, shiner or minnow for bait, and a single spinner is all you need. Row along the weed beds, about seventy-five feet out and cast in toward the edge, landing your bait about five feet from the edge. Give the pickerel a little time before striking as he grabs the live bait and darts back to his lair, there to turn it around in his mouth and swallow it head first. Strike sharply and row away from the weeds. Bear this in mind: he may come up to the boat with ease, but he makes his big effort for liberty after you bring him up to the boat.

The usual way to get him is by trolling with a spoon or spinner. Take a No. 4 1/2 tandem spinner with a treble hook bucktalled or feathered, or a No. 4 spoon and you have an excellent trolling rig. A chunk of pork rind adds to the attractiveness of the lure.

DIXIE.

THE BAND PLAYED ON, BUT ONLY 4 REMAINED

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Paris, April 27.—Almost daily reports of manifold fears of heroism by men who fight have almost completely overshadowed the heroism of the men who battle solely with musical instruments as doggedly as their comrades of the baronet.

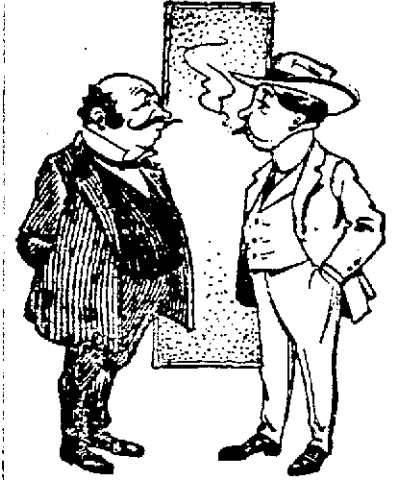

There is a true story of the 46th French Infantry band, which, before the war, used to play summer afternoon concerts in Paris. The band, composed of fifteen musicians under Bandmaster Lety, never ceased to play though ten were killed or wounded before the troops conquered the town of Vauquois. Advancing with the regiment, Lety was beating time for the "Marseillaise" when the first bandman fell. Immediately afterward another was wounded but he continued to play where he fell. Bullets were flying everywhere as the band advanced.

With the "Marseillaise" half played the casualties numbered four, the alto and flute placed out of action by an exploding shell. Soon the regiment was in the German trench and the band had struck up "The Charge." The fifth casualty came almost instantly. Laurent, one of the three clarionets was hit in the stomach. He grasped the shoulder of his neighbor but the latter shook him off and marched on without removing his instrument from his lips. German machine guns were hammering the advancing French from a height in the town. The noise was terrific but the remnant of the band forged ahead without a break in the music. Blanchard, the big drummer was the next to drop. The same bullet wounded another flute player. The troops were now engaged in hand to hand fighting with the Germans in the streets of Vauquois.

The bandmaster signalled his remaining men for the "Marseillaise." It came promptly but not so loud and strong as on the first occasion. Prevost, first trombone player dropped his instrument when a shell splinter shattered his hand. Maurier, second trombone, shot through the hip, crawled to the instrument Prevost had dropped and went on playing. The band had now reached a place where it came under a heavy enfilading fire. Another bandman was shot through the heart.

When the day was won there remained but five of the heroic bandmen who had escaped intact. One of these was Bandmaster Lety who had continued to beat time with his white gloves throughout the entire engagement. Every instrument was damaged by bullets of shrapnel. A saxophone was torn from the hands of its player by a shrapnel splinter. The foregoing is why the general orders a few days later said that the 46th Infantry Band played under the enemy's fire to encourage the attacking troops in spite of a heavy bombardment.

EXTRAVAGANT MAN.
Jones—Oh, yes, Billings is quite rich. Why? He's got a Reubens a

GORDON—2 1/4 in.
ARROW
form-fit COLLAR
2 for 30c
CLUETT, PEABODY & CO. NYC/MAKERS

Vandyke and a Rembrandt.
Jinks—Heavens! What does he want three cars for?

The Greatest Traveler.
By migrating from pole to pole the arctic tern becomes the greatest traveler in the world and also manages to enjoy more daylight than any other bird. It has been found nesting within 500 miles of the pole. When the young are grown the entire family leave for the south and some months later are found skirting the edges of the antarctic. As the daylight season draws to a close in the far south the long journey north is undertaken—London Standard.

YOUNG MAN—YOUR COUNTRY NEEDS YOU

Don't be a slacker! Join this company and go out with us. We'll be glad to have you along, because you've got the right stuff in you. Parents' consent not necessary if you are 18 or over.

APPLY AT THE ARMORY ANY TIME, RIGHT NOW IS THE BEST TIME.

COMPANY M. FIRST REGIMENT, WIS. NATIONAL GUARDS

Armory over Kemmerer Garage, 206 E. Milw. St.
Capt. E. N. Caldwell in charge.

Buy for quality

There's just one way to be economical in buying clothes; go after quality and price rather than price alone. Our clothes give you the lowest prices consistent with guaranteed quality, fine tailoring and all-wool fabrics. Such clothes are real economy—they wear longer and look right.

Look for our label

It stands for best quality; see it sewed in the coat; a small thing to look for, a big thing to find

Hart Schaffner & Marx

What you get for your money makes Hart Schaffner & Marx the lowest-priced clothes you can buy. We'll show you.

T. J. ZIEGLER CLOTHING CO.

JOS. M. CONNORS, Manager.
The Home of John B. Stetson Hats, Wilson Shirts, Lewis Underwear Mallory Cravenetted Hats, Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes.

Scrub

Walls finished with Velour

We are always on the lookout for articles that will give you better service. Our latest discovery is —an oil paint that gives a soft, velvety finish to walls, ceilings and woodwork. It is inexpensive, easily applied—and sanitary. You can wash it with soap and water.

DEVOE

THE GUARANTEED VELOUR FINISH

It is the ideal paint for inside work. It may be applied direct to woodwork, plaster, wallboard, wallpaper, canvas, burlap, radiators, pipes, etc.

The eighteen attractive tints make any color scheme possible. Call or write for card.

J. P. BAKER

Paints and Drugs

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN

PAINT DEVOE PAINT

HONOR AMERICANS WITH CANADIANS; MANY HAVE FALLEN

NOTE.—A. McKenzie, a well known Canadian newspaper editor, who has been with the Canadian forces on the western front and has had exceptional opportunities to see them in action, has written a series of stories on the Americans with this expeditionary force.

The first of these stories is entitled "The Second" and will be printed tomorrow.

Although the series was written before America made her entrance into the world war, and before the Canadian troops achieved their latest glory in the taking of Vimy Ridge, they give a vivid picture of Americans now fighting in France, and those who perished in that fighting.—Editor.

By A. McKenzie.

With the British Army in the Field, March 25. When the Great War began, there was a new American invasion of Canada, men offering their services to fight Germany. Numerous U. S. army officers resigned their commissions and enlisted in the Canadian forces. They were called "The Canadian Volunteers." They were a fine lot of men, and many of them were killed in action. They were called "The Canadian Volunteers." They were a fine lot of men, and many of them were killed in action.

What has been the record of these Americans? It is found in the rolls of honor in the British Empire. They have earned commissions, hundreds have died fighting. I asked the commander of a famous battalion which, although it only went to the front last summer, had already earned great glory about his Americans. "We had scores of them," he replied, "but you will find them here. You will find their graves on the Somme."

Americans have received at least four Distinguished Conduct Medals, still more Military Crosses, and many other honors. One of the Americans among the Canadians received the Croix de Guerre. The U. S. army and navy officers who joined the Canadians have won a number of their own. Take, for example, Major Houghton of a machine gun battery. Houghton was nearly four years in the U. S. navy and wears today in his uniform the ribbons of the West India and San Juan campaigns, alongside of his recently earned British Military Cross. "The United States may know that I had not served in the British army," he said, "but I had served in the Spanish War." This was not the only reason that Houghton tried to play his card. I took the opportunity of paying off old scores.

Houghton telegraphed to a friend to join him, "come, which side?" came the reply. "There was no question of his side. Being a machine gun operator he was welcomed and given his commission. He soon came to the front. He has taken part in the fighting of the past year and of eight months, except when he was recovering from a wound. The share the machine gunners take in the fighting is not often told. He received his Military Cross at the New Year, not for one specially prominent act, but for continuous gallantry, initiative and dash.

Houghton once wrote a famous letter to a friend in Chicago giving his real opinion of the Hun. It was the kind of letter that would send the Hun to the bottom of the sea. His friend published it, and since then the Major has received hundreds of letters from Americans thanking him. "I know you are," I will hit you down and kill you when you come back, if it takes ten years. It took me ten years to get to the trenches."

But it was not the angry letter that led Major Houghton recently to refuse an offer of leave. He was waiting through the dreary waiting time, when the Huns were pounding us," he said. "Do you think I'm going to leave now, when we are just beginning to smash the Hun. Never on your life."

DELAYED STREET OIL IS FINALLY IN CITY

Tank Car Shipments Very Slow in Arriving—Plan to Start Distribution Early Next Week.

At the rate that oil, ordered for the surfacing of Janesville streets is arriving in the city, it appears that the city will not be able to start distribution until early next week. The city has ordered for the surfacing of the streets a large quantity of oil. The oil is being shipped in tank cars. The shipments are very slow in arriving. The city has ordered for the surfacing of the streets a large quantity of oil. The oil is being shipped in tank cars. The shipments are very slow in arriving.

SOME GARDEN PLOTS STILL OBTAINABLE

Mr. West of the High School, has a Number of Available for Use—May Starts Over Forty City Farmers.

Janesville's only desiring garden plots and unable to secure them, today can have their choice of a number still left by A. B. West, head of the agriculture department at the high school. Mr. West's announcement that he still has listed a number of garden plots which have not been spoken for and he desires local people to make known their wants immediately.

Mayor Patterson has placed by garden property in the city at present and people owning vacant property are swamped with inquiries of the possibility of the plots to be secured for garden truck planting.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Dorothy Heider, South Jackson street, tonight will entertain at a kitchen shower in honor of Miss Nellie Marshall, a bride-to-be of May.

Mr. R. Sherwood and son Charles are home from a Chicago visit. While there they attended Ringling's circus at the Coleman.

Miss Miss Kittie and Ella Panning attended the Peterson-Malone wedding at Milton Junction Thursday.

Mrs. Edward Smith, who has been guest of her sister, Mrs. James Soling, of North Pearl street, has returned to her home at Albany.

Mrs. P. Burt Carr of Chicago, is visiting friends and relatives in the city.

Mrs. Fred Olin and son Robert have returned from Fond du Lac after visiting relatives for a week.

Mrs. William Hutton of 220 Oakland avenue, who underwent a serious operation is reported as improving.

Mrs. William Doran and two children of Chicago is visiting her mother Mrs. William Hutton of South Main street.

Out-of-Town Visitors.

Mrs. Kelly of Madison, has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Kelly, of the Madison Hotel, on South Main street for some time.

She leaves today for Des Moines, Ia., for a visit and she will be accompanied by Mrs. Womble.

Mrs. Minnie Wilson of Chicago, has returned home. She spent several days in town visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Edward Halpin and Mrs. J. J. Burns of Chicago, were the guests on Thursday of Mrs. Isaac Connors of Cherry street.

Mr. Turner of Edgerton, is a business visitor in town today.

George Whalen of Monroe, is spending the day in Janesville. He is calling on friends in town today.

Miss A. Louise Denniston of Aberdeen, South Dakota, is in the city. She will spend several weeks with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Charles Eckhart of Chicago, is the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Webber of West Edgerton.

Mr. W. Mun and C. Lawrence of Rockford, are spending the day in this city.

Mr. Ellis of Evansville, is transacting business in town today.

Mrs. Margaret L. Wray of Chicago, is visiting friends in town. Miss Wray was a former resident of this city. She has taken up the study of the uniform of Uncle Sam. They were not the "lower classes." They were "regular fellows" with a pride in the service such as few men attain in their jobs in civil life.

William McNaughton of Oshkosh, was a business visitor in town on Thursday.

Mr. J. Stanton of Beloit, was the guest of Janesville relatives yesterday.

Mrs. M. B. Fletcher of Edgerton, was a shopper in town on Thursday.

Mrs. J. A. Myers of Beloit, visited with Janesville relatives a few days this week.

Mrs. W. Hoffman of Whitewater, spent the day on Thursday in town.

Mrs. T. V. Dodge of Brodhead, was the guest this week of Janesville friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wallis of East Milwaukee street, had for their guest this week their sister, Mrs. E. J. Ballard of Evansville. Mrs. Ballard returned home this morning.

Mr. A. F. Stenger and J. K. Hendrickson of Oshkosh, are Janesville visitors today.

Mrs. J. H. Saunders of Milton, visited Janesville friends on Thursday.

Mrs. J. H. Green, Mrs. E. Kelly, Mrs. E. E. Hodge and Miss Ida Harper of Footville, were Thursday shoppers in this city.

Mrs. Frank Vahn of Edgerton, spent the day with friends in town yesterday.

James Hecate of South Main street, is home from an extended business trip in Montana.

Mr. T. Pomeroy, J. O. Arthur, T. B. Earle, E. W. Coon, A. P. Razliff and B. C. Wilson are in town today from Edgerton to attend the county defense council, held at the city hall today.

Mr. A. Mow, Jr., H. P. Silverthorn and O. J. Burness of Oshkosh, are spending the day in this city.

Mrs. L. H. Coburn of Whitewater, spent the day shopping in this city on Thursday.

Edward Parker is home from a Chicago business trip of several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Osterander and son, are spending a few weeks in Janesville. Mr. Osterander is inspector for the Northwestern railroad and is employed by the government.

Mrs. Amanda Lee of Milton, spent the day yesterday with friends in town.

Mrs. Fred Woodstock of Lima, who has been ill at Mercy hospital, is convalescing. She is spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook on South Jackson street.

Social Happenings.

The coal and wood dealers of the city gave a dinner last evening at seven o'clock in the ordinary of the Hotel Myers. Covers were laid for twenty-one. The evening was spent in discussing business methods of the different firms.

Mrs. David Parkes of the La Vista flats, is entertaining at a dinner party this evening at half after six. Twelve ladies will enjoy her hospitality.

An entertainment will be given at the N. E. church this evening at eight o'clock for the benefit of the Sunday school. There will be music and readings. A good program has been prepared and all the members are asked to come.

Mrs. E. J. Haumerson of North Jackson street, will entertain a group of ladies, this afternoon, who are interested in the Red Cross work. Sewing for that order will occupy the afternoon.

The Century Heart club met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. W. T. Dooley of South Academy street. At cards the prizes were won by Mrs. Don Ryan and Mrs. J. McVicar. A most elegant supper was served at five o'clock.

Mrs. Fred Korbelin of Prospect avenue, entertained today a club of ladies who played the game of 500 in the afternoon. At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Korbelin served a supper.

Circle No. 8 of the M. E. church met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Loomis on North Washington street. Mrs. Sowle assisted Mrs. Loomis as hostess. Refreshments were served during the afternoon.

A social and supper will be given this afternoon at the Congregational church from 4:00 to 7:30. It was given for all members of the Sunday school under twenty years of age.

They Don't Like Hearsees.

The hearse, although by no means a modern invention, has not yet penetrated into some of the remote country districts of England. The coffin of the late Duke of Norfolk when it arrived from London at his country estate at Arundel was not put in a hearse, for none was available there; but, according to custom, was placed in an ordinary farm wagon and drawn by four horses to the castle.

In many parts of agricultural England the use of a hearse is regarded with distrust, the farmers' theory being that "the Lord's harvest when gathered should be carried in the same way as man's harvest."

Read the want ads for bargains.

How Real Soldiers Of Uncle Sam Act

In order that it might have some first hand information to give to the state on the real life of a soldier in the Regular Army, the Wisconsin Defense League has sent a trained newspaper man to the south for personal observation of the manner in which the soldier-the enlisted man, not the officer-lives in the army. Following is the result of this observation.

(By Warren B. Bullock)

The "Great Gulf" does not exist. Men of letters, who write from theory and not from observation, pacifists, anti-militarists and the like, have for years written, lectured and conversed on the "great gulf" which exists in the American army between the officers and the enlisted men and non-commissioned officers. They have declared the spirit is undemocratic.

After a personal study of real life in the army, brief, but thorough, I am willing to declare unhesitatingly that the "great gulf" is a figment in the imagination of the anti-army, peace-at-any-price publicist who does not know whereof he speaks.

There is a disciplinary difference between the officer and the enlisted man, or the non-commissioned officer. The distinction is no more than disciplinary. The real relation is no different from that of superior and subordinate in any factory, office or other business organization.

Under an assignment to see what I could see, and to write just what I saw, I visited the regular army camp at the Seelye military post, El Paso, Tex., on the Mexican border. Expecting to be forced to write some criticism of the relations between officers and men, I found nothing to criticize.

First of all, what struck me was the type of men in the army. They were picked men, erect, clear-eyed, proud of their "great gulf" is a figment in the imagination of the anti-army, peace-at-any-price publicist who does not know whereof he speaks.

That is one picture of what a soldier can do in the army. His living in the past, for his clothing is bought, an outsider, is "velvet." A soldier, even a private, can save $10 a month. Do you yourself save that much, year in and year out? I can't.

There was a call for inspection.

Lieut. Jones was busy loading wagons with company equipment. I heard no loud raucous orders. The lieutenant walked to a couple of men and said: "The range-finder is back of my tent. Put it in B company wagon." There was no more noise or exultation of authority than when a business man asks a stenographer to take a letter in the case of the stenographer. A hand waved, and a company wagon rolled off. An inclination of the head, and another wagon rolled up to have its load finished. That was all. A private came up, saluted, said: "May I speak to you a moment sir?" And then his private gave the lieutenant 75c change. I learned after a purchase the lieutenant had asked him to make when down town the day before. And that did not seem like a great gift to me.

I visited with the men. I ate with them. They were courteous gentlemen, not "rough-necks," talked intelligently of the regimental history, and of their own joining. I found half a dozen who were studying to take examinations for officers commissions. I found every one of these men was being assisted-tutored you would call it in school-by his officers, or one of them. And that did not seem like a great gift to me.

I asked about Jones, "Billy B." we call him," said a private. "He's a good officer, but there are lots more of them. A man has to be good to his men to get along these days."

And I thought again, that when a superior is given a nickname by his men, unless the name is offensive, that it is a good sign of a spirit in an organization that will win over anything.

A regular army enlisted man's salute to his officer is not a sign of subservience. It is a claim to fraternity with the officer in the service. Watch a soldier approach his officer. Head in air, eyes straight toward his superior, and you will appreciate that the feeling is not that of servility but of official recognition. This is not always true in the National Guard, Wisconsin excepted, for Wisconsin guardsmen are the nearest approach to regulars that any state produces.

The regular army man, soldier as well as officer, feels pride in his service. Some civilians unfortunately look down upon the army. All soldiers feel a pride in service that would surprise the civilian if he knew the soldier's attitude toward a mere man in civil life. And finally, don't forget that the regular soldier is a picked man, highly trained in his profession of soldiery. He is trained by the most highly trained officers in any army of the world. He is properly fed, properly cared for as to health and hygienic conditions, and the soldier who enlists now can have the benefit of this highly organized training, although he may enlist under the latest orders of the governmental authorities, for the period of the war, or one year only, instead of the old requirement of a period of years.

The regular army soldier is a picked man. No man who has ever been convicted of any offense can become a soldier in the United States regulars. There are not that kind. This is the only gulf in the army, that between the "bum" and the soldier. The "bum" can never cross this gulf and become a soldier. A dozen who were studying to take examinations for officers commissions. I found every one of these men was being assisted-tutored you would call it in school-by his officers, or one of them. And that did not seem like a great gift to me.

I asked about Jones, "Billy B." we call him," said a private. "He's a good officer, but there are lots more of them. A man has to be good to his men to get along these days."

And I thought again, that when a superior is given a nickname by his men, unless the name is offensive, that it is a good sign of a spirit in an organization that will win over anything.

A regular army enlisted man's salute to his officer is not a sign of subservience. It is a claim to fraternity with the officer in the service. Watch a soldier approach his officer. Head in air, eyes straight toward his superior, and you will appreciate that the feeling is not that of servility but of official recognition. This is not always true in the National Guard, Wisconsin excepted, for Wisconsin guardsmen are the nearest approach to regulars that any state produces.

The regular army man, soldier as well as officer, feels pride in his service. Some civilians unfortunately look down upon the army. All soldiers feel a pride in service that would surprise the civilian if he knew the soldier's attitude toward a mere man in civil life. And finally, don't forget that the regular soldier is a picked man, highly trained in his profession of soldiery. He is trained by the most highly trained officers in any army of the world. He is properly fed, properly cared for as to health and hygienic conditions, and the soldier who enlists now can have the benefit of this highly organized training, although he may enlist under the latest orders of the governmental authorities, for the period of the war, or one year only, instead of the old requirement of a period of years.

The regular army soldier is a picked man. No man who has ever been convicted of any offense can become a soldier in the United States regulars. There are not that kind. This is the only gulf in the army, that between the "bum" and the soldier. The "bum" can never cross this gulf and become a soldier. A dozen who were studying to take examinations for officers commissions. I found every one of these men was being assisted-tutored you would call it in school-by his officers, or one of them. And that did not seem like a great gift to me.

I asked about Jones, "Billy B." we call him," said a private. "He's a good officer, but there are lots more of them. A man has to be good to his men to get along these days."

And I thought again, that when a superior is given a nickname by his men, unless the name is offensive, that it is a good sign of a spirit in an organization that will win over anything.

A regular army enlisted man's salute to his officer is not a sign of subservience. It is a claim to fraternity with the officer in the service. Watch a soldier approach his officer. Head in air, eyes straight toward his superior, and you will appreciate that the feeling is not that of servility but of official recognition. This is not always true in the National Guard, Wisconsin excepted, for Wisconsin guardsmen are the nearest approach to regulars that any state produces.

The regular army man, soldier as well as officer, feels pride in his service. Some civilians unfortunately look down upon the army. All soldiers feel a pride in service that would surprise the civilian if he knew the soldier's attitude toward a mere man in civil life. And finally, don't forget that the regular soldier is a picked man, highly trained in his profession of soldiery. He is trained by the most highly trained officers in any army of the world. He is properly fed, properly cared for as to health and hygienic conditions, and the soldier who enlists now can have the benefit of this highly organized training, although he may enlist under the latest orders of the governmental authorities, for the period of the war, or one year only, instead of the old requirement of a period of years.

The regular army soldier is a picked man. No man who has ever been convicted of any offense can become a soldier in the United States regulars. There are not that kind. This is the only gulf in the army, that between the "bum" and the soldier. The "bum" can never cross this gulf and become a soldier. A dozen who were studying to take examinations for officers commissions. I found every one of these men was being assisted-tutored you would call it in school-by his officers, or one of them. And that did not seem like a great gift to me.

I asked about Jones, "Billy B." we call him," said a private. "He's a good officer, but there are lots more of them. A man has to be good to his men to get along these days."

And I thought again, that when a superior is given a nickname by his men, unless the name is offensive, that it is a good sign of a spirit in an organization that will win over anything.

A regular army enlisted man's salute to his officer is not a sign of subservience. It is a claim to fraternity with the officer in the service. Watch a soldier approach his officer. Head in air, eyes straight toward his superior, and you will appreciate that the feeling is not that of servility but of official recognition. This is not always true in the National Guard, Wisconsin excepted, for Wisconsin guardsmen are the nearest approach to regulars that any state produces.

The regular army man, soldier as well as officer, feels pride in his service. Some civilians unfortunately look down upon the army. All soldiers feel a pride in service that would surprise the civilian if he knew the soldier's attitude toward a mere man in civil life. And finally, don't forget that the regular soldier is a picked man, highly trained in his profession of soldiery. He is trained by the most highly trained officers in any army of the world. He is properly fed, properly cared for as to health and hygienic conditions, and the soldier who enlists now can have the benefit of this highly organized training, although he may enlist under the latest orders of the governmental authorities, for the period of the war, or one year only, instead of the old requirement of a period of years.

The regular army soldier is a picked man. No man who has ever been convicted of any offense can become a soldier in the United States regulars. There are not that kind. This is the only gulf in the army, that between the "bum" and the soldier. The "bum" can never cross this gulf and become a soldier. A dozen who were studying to take examinations for officers commissions. I found every one of these men was being assisted-tutored you would call it in school-by his officers, or one of them. And that did not seem like a great gift to me.

I asked about Jones, "Billy B." we call him," said a private. "He's a good officer, but there are lots more of them. A man has to be good to his men to get along these days."

And I thought again, that when a superior is given a nickname by his men, unless the name is offensive, that it is a good sign of a spirit in an organization that will win over anything.

A regular army enlisted man's salute to his officer is not a sign of subservience. It is a claim to fraternity with the officer in the service. Watch a soldier approach his officer. Head in air, eyes straight toward his superior, and you will appreciate that the feeling is not that of servility but of official recognition. This is not always true in the National Guard, Wisconsin excepted, for Wisconsin guardsmen are the nearest approach to regulars that any state produces.

The regular army man, soldier as well as officer, feels pride in his service. Some civilians unfortunately look down upon the army. All soldiers feel a pride in service that would surprise the civilian if he knew the soldier's attitude toward a mere man in civil life. And finally, don't forget that the regular soldier is a picked man, highly trained in his profession of soldiery. He is trained by the most highly trained officers in any army of the world. He is properly fed, properly cared for as to health and hygienic conditions, and the soldier who enlists now can have the benefit of this highly organized training, although he may enlist under the latest orders of the governmental authorities, for the period of the war, or one year only, instead of the old requirement of a period of years.

The regular army soldier is a picked man. No man who has ever been convicted of any offense can become a soldier in the United States regulars. There are not that kind. This is the only gulf in the army, that between the "bum" and the soldier. The "bum" can never cross this gulf and become a soldier. A dozen who were studying to take examinations for officers commissions. I found every one of these men was being assisted-tutored you would call it in school-by his officers, or one of them. And that did not seem like a great gift to me.

I asked about Jones, "Billy B." we call him," said a private. "He's a good officer, but there are lots more of them. A man has to be good to his men to get along these days."

And I thought again, that when a superior is given a nickname by his men, unless the name is offensive, that it is a good sign of a spirit in an organization that will win over anything.

A regular army enlisted man's salute to his officer is not a sign of subservience. It is a claim to fraternity with the officer in the service. Watch a soldier approach his officer. Head in air, eyes straight toward his superior, and you will appreciate that the feeling is not that of servility but of official recognition. This is not always true in the National Guard, Wisconsin excepted, for Wisconsin guardsmen are the nearest approach to regulars that any state produces.

The regular army man, soldier as well as officer, feels pride in his service. Some civilians unfortunately look down upon the army. All soldiers feel a pride in service that would surprise the civilian if he knew the soldier's attitude toward a mere man in civil life. And finally, don't forget that the regular soldier is a picked man, highly trained in his profession of soldiery. He is trained by the most highly trained officers in any army of the world. He is properly fed, properly cared for as to health and hygienic conditions, and the soldier who enlists now can have the benefit of this highly organized training, although he may enlist under the latest orders of the governmental authorities, for the period of the war, or one year only, instead of the old requirement of a period of years.

The regular army soldier is a picked man. No man who has ever been convicted of any offense can become a soldier in the United States regulars. There are not that kind. This is the only gulf in the army, that between the "bum" and the soldier. The "bum" can never cross this gulf and become a soldier. A dozen who were studying to take examinations for officers commissions. I found every one of these men was being assisted-tutored you would call it in school-by his officers, or one of them. And that did not seem like a great gift to me.

I asked about Jones, "Billy B." we call him," said a private. "He's a good officer, but there are lots more of them. A man has to be good to his men to get along these days."

And I thought again, that when a superior is given a nickname by his men, unless the name is offensive, that it is a good sign of a spirit in an organization that will win over anything.

A regular army enlisted man's salute to his officer is not a sign of subservience. It is a claim to fraternity with the officer in the service. Watch a soldier approach his officer. Head in air, eyes straight toward his superior, and you will appreciate that the feeling is not that of servility but of official recognition. This is not always true in the National Guard, Wisconsin excepted, for Wisconsin guardsmen are the nearest approach to regulars that any state produces.

The regular army man, soldier as well as officer, feels pride in his service. Some civilians unfortunately look down upon the army. All soldiers feel a pride in service that would surprise the civilian if he knew the soldier's attitude toward a mere man in civil life. And finally, don't forget that the regular soldier is a picked man, highly trained in his profession of soldiery. He is trained by the most highly trained officers in any army of the world. He is properly fed, properly cared for as to health and hygienic conditions, and the soldier who enlists now can have the benefit of this highly organized training, although he may enlist under the latest orders of the governmental authorities, for the period of the war, or one year only, instead of the old requirement of a period of years.

The regular army soldier is a picked man. No man who has ever been convicted of any offense can become a soldier in the United States regulars. There are not that kind. This is the only gulf in the army, that between the "bum" and the soldier. The "bum" can never cross this gulf and become a soldier. A dozen who were studying to take examinations for officers commissions. I found every one of these men was being assisted-tutored you would call it in school-by his officers, or one of them. And that did not seem like a great gift to me.

I asked about Jones, "Billy B." we call him," said a private. "He's a good officer, but there are lots more of them. A man has to be good to his men to get along these days."

And I thought again, that when a superior is given a nickname by his men, unless the name is offensive, that it is a good sign of a spirit in an organization that will win over anything.

A regular army enlisted man's salute to his officer is not a sign of subservience. It is a claim to fraternity with the officer in the service. Watch a soldier approach his officer. Head in air, eyes straight toward his superior, and you will appreciate that the feeling is not that of servility but of official recognition. This is not always true in the National Guard, Wisconsin excepted, for Wisconsin guardsmen are the nearest approach to regulars that any state produces.

The regular army man, soldier as well as officer, feels pride in his service. Some civilians unfortunately look down upon the army. All soldiers feel a pride in service that would surprise the civilian if he knew the soldier's attitude toward a mere man in civil life. And finally, don't forget that the regular soldier is a picked man, highly trained in his profession of soldiery. He is trained by the most highly trained officers in any army of the world. He is properly fed, properly cared for as to health and hygienic conditions, and the soldier who enlists now can have the benefit of this highly organized training, although he may enlist under the latest orders of the governmental authorities, for the period of the war, or one year only, instead of the old requirement of a period of years.

The regular army soldier is a picked man. No man who has ever been convicted of any offense can become a soldier in the United States regulars. There are not that kind. This is the only gulf in the army, that between the "bum" and the soldier. The "bum" can never cross this gulf and become a soldier. A dozen who were studying to take examinations for officers commissions. I found every one of these men was being assisted-tutored you would call it in school-by his officers, or one of them. And that did not seem like a great gift to me.

I asked about Jones, "Billy B." we call him," said a private. "He's a good officer, but there are lots more of them. A man has to be good to his men to get along these days."

And I thought again, that when a superior is given a nickname by his men, unless the name is offensive, that it is a good sign of a spirit in an organization that will win over anything.

A regular army enlisted man's salute to his officer is not a sign of subservience. It is a claim to fraternity with the officer in the service. Watch a soldier approach his officer. Head in air, eyes straight toward his superior, and you will appreciate that the feeling is not that of servility but of official recognition. This is not always true in the National Guard, Wisconsin excepted, for Wisconsin guardsmen are the nearest approach to regulars that any state produces.

The regular army man, soldier as well as officer, feels pride in his service. Some civilians unfortunately look down upon the army. All soldiers feel a pride in service that would surprise the civilian if he knew the soldier's attitude toward a mere man in civil life. And finally, don't forget that the regular soldier is a picked man, highly trained in his profession of soldiery. He is trained by the most highly trained officers in any army of the world. He is properly fed, properly cared for as to health and hygienic conditions, and the soldier who enlists now can have the benefit of this highly organized training, although he may enlist under the latest orders of the governmental authorities, for the period of the war, or one year only, instead of the old requirement of a period of years.

The regular army soldier is a picked man. No man who has ever been convicted of any offense can become a soldier in the United States regulars. There are not that kind. This is the only gulf in the army, that between the "bum" and the soldier. The "bum" can never cross this gulf and become a soldier. A dozen who were studying to take examinations for officers commissions. I found every one of these men was being assisted-tutored you would call it in school-by his officers, or one of them. And that did not seem like a great gift to me.

I asked about Jones, "Billy B." we call him," said a private. "He's a good officer, but there are lots more of them. A man has to be good to his men to get along these days."

And I thought again, that when a superior is given a nickname by his men, unless the name is offensive, that it is a good sign of a spirit in an organization that will win over anything.

A regular army enlisted man's salute to his officer is not a sign of subservience. It is a claim to fraternity with the officer in the service. Watch a soldier approach his officer. Head in air, eyes straight toward his superior, and you will appreciate that the feeling is not that of servility but of official recognition. This is not always true in the National Guard, Wisconsin excepted, for Wisconsin guardsmen are the nearest approach to regulars that any state produces.

The regular army man, soldier as well as officer, feels pride in his service. Some civilians unfortunately look down upon the army. All soldiers feel a pride in service that would surprise the civilian if he knew the soldier's attitude toward a mere man in civil life. And finally, don't forget that the regular soldier is a picked man, highly trained in his profession of soldiery. He is trained by the most highly trained officers in any army of the world. He is properly fed, properly cared for as to health and hygienic conditions, and the soldier who enlists now can have the benefit of this highly organized training, although he may enlist under the latest orders of the governmental authorities, for the period of the war, or one year only, instead of the old requirement of a period of years.

The regular army soldier is a picked man. No man who has ever been convicted of any offense can become a soldier in the United States regulars. There are not that kind. This is the only gulf in the army, that between the "bum" and the soldier. The "bum" can never cross this gulf and become a soldier. A dozen who were studying to take examinations for officers commissions. I found every one of these men was being assisted-tutored you would call it in school-by his officers, or one of them. And that did not seem like a great gift to me.

I asked about Jones, "Billy B." we call him," said a private. "He's a good officer, but there are lots more of them. A man has to be good to his men to get along these days."

And I thought again, that when a superior is given a nickname by his men, unless the name is offensive, that it is a good sign of a spirit in an organization that will win over anything.

A regular army enlisted man's salute to his officer is not a sign of subservience. It is a claim to fraternity with the officer in the service. Watch a soldier approach his officer. Head in air, eyes straight toward his superior, and you will appreciate that the feeling is not that of servility but of official recognition. This is not always true in the National Guard, Wisconsin excepted, for Wisconsin guardsmen are the nearest approach to regulars that any state produces.

The regular army man, soldier as well as officer, feels pride in his service. Some civilians unfortunately look down upon the army. All soldiers feel a pride in service that would surprise the civilian if he knew the soldier's attitude toward a mere man in civil life. And finally, don't forget that the regular soldier is a picked man, highly trained in his profession of soldiery. He is trained by the most highly trained officers in any army of the world. He is properly fed, properly cared for as to health and hygienic conditions, and the soldier who enlists now can have the benefit of this highly organized training, although he may enlist under the latest orders of the governmental authorities, for the period of the war, or one year only, instead of the old requirement of a period of years.

The regular army soldier is a picked man. No man who has ever been convicted of any offense can become a soldier in the United States regulars. There are not that kind. This is the only gulf in the army, that between the "bum" and the soldier. The "bum" can never cross this gulf and become a soldier. A dozen who were studying to take examinations for officers commissions. I found every one of these men was being assisted-tutored you would call it in school-by his officers, or one of them. And that did not seem like a great gift to me.

I asked about Jones, "Billy B." we call him," said a private. "He's a good officer, but there are lots more of them. A man has to be good to his men to get along these days."

And I thought again, that when a superior is given a nickname by his men, unless the name is offensive, that it is a good sign of a spirit in an organization that will win over anything.

A regular army enlisted man's salute to his officer is not a sign of subservience. It is a claim to fraternity with the officer in the service. Watch a soldier approach his officer. Head in air, eyes straight toward his superior, and you will appreciate that the feeling is not that of servility but of official recognition. This is not always true in the National Guard, Wisconsin excepted, for Wisconsin guardsmen are the nearest approach to regulars that any state produces.

The regular army man, soldier as well as officer, feels pride in his service. Some civilians unfortunately look down upon the army. All soldiers feel a pride in service that would surprise the civilian if he knew the soldier's attitude toward a mere man in civil life. And finally, don't forget that the regular soldier is a picked man, highly trained in his profession of soldiery. He is trained by the most highly trained officers in any army of the world. He is properly fed, properly cared for as to health and hygienic conditions, and the soldier who enlists now can have the benefit of this highly organized training, although he may enlist under the latest orders of the governmental authorities, for the period of the war, or one year only, instead of the old requirement of a period of years.

The regular army soldier is a picked man. No man who has ever been convicted of any offense can become a soldier in the United States regulars. There are not that kind. This is the only gulf in the army, that between the "bum" and the soldier. The "bum" can never cross this gulf and become a soldier. A dozen who were studying to take examinations for officers commissions. I found every one of these men was being assisted-tutored you would call it in school-by his officers, or one of them. And that did not seem like a great gift to me.

I asked about Jones, "Billy B." we call him," said a private. "He's a good officer, but there are lots more of them. A man has to be good to his men to get along these days."

And I thought again, that when a superior is given a nickname by his men, unless the name is offensive, that it is a good sign of a spirit in an organization that will win over anything.

A regular army enlisted man's salute to his officer